

Tuesday

Dear Bob -

I am more or less just counting the days until you will be home - the only Christmas present free.

Dad & I had
more fun shopping yesterday from people watching - women & girls with the oddest clothing - and men too - some male hairstyles looked nice & others needed a trim &
double shampoo -

It is down to 17 degrees today - so please dress as warm as you can coming home. It could be a shock from California weather.
Dad called Harry this morning - busy - but he will call again - we have a big sign up to do so -

Lois is busy but trying hard to get ahead so she will have time for you and pots of tea
- Bob you are loved &

needed so very much in this house

I don't even have a comic or news article to send you - just stay well and wonderful.

Love you
Mom
