

Wednesday

Dear Bob -

As you know Aunt Pat is taking care of the Moores while Alice is away - When I called her on Monday she told me that the Moores didn't like the supper she had prepared for them Sunday night - the first meal! - Maybe she gets teased too much or does our whole family tease too much at times. There is always a happy medium in many things and I suppose all of us fail at times to achieve it.

Uncle Ken said that he was buying 4 dogwood trees to place around the house to soften the landscape. When asked where he would put them he said that 4 of ~~the~~ ^{us} would carry placards, ^{named} with colors of trees & walk & stand around until Alice decided

That all were in a good place.
Sounds silly I know, but then maybe it would work.

Lois cut out this headline for you - how does it read to you John the Baptist is a champ - who wrestling a champ - I thought it was Jacob in the Bible who wrestled with an angel

St. John the Baptist Wrestling Champ

Old questions asked again - did you get your new eye glasses?
if not we'll send another pair.
It's important that your eyesight
stay healthy.

It's really March weather blustery and cold and I hate it.

That all were in a good place.
Some are silly know, but then
maybe it would work.

So I cut out this headline
for you - how does it read to you John the Baptist is a champ - is he wrestling a champ - I thought it was Jacob in the Bible who
wrestled with an angel

St. John the Baptist Wrestling Champ

Old questions asked again -
did you get your new eye glasses?
if not we'll send a rather pair.
It's important that your eyesight
stay healthy.

It's really, I think over the blinking and cold air I hate it.

but soon Dad will be out of doors raking & digging & fertilizing. and it will be nice for him for he is the happiest working outside.

Dad knows too if you got the tea & tobacco & the next food package with corned & dried foods and of course books - do you really have enough for a while? Dad picks them up & stores them on the bookcase in the dining room - So there'll be another one soon and I shall send book packages too - so don't try to save the old ones.

Dad & I are going to Sam Goody's to buy you one or two new cassettes - and Jane & Craig are making more for you too - So maybe you'll have a good library of music too -

Stay well, Son, stay reasonably content, nothing lasts forever - just remember there are many prayers here for you

I do love you so much
Dad
