

Tuesday the 4th

Dear Bob — Such a wet rainy day!

anyway, if you still have not received your packages from us (2) — should you ask? — Maybe they are tucked into a corner —

One package of bread & tea — will be ruined — (as sent it special handling) the other just has a lot of little things like Borden's Jergens soap — Cadbury bars — a fudge — I forget what else however Lois has brought you

Two books on Henry VIII — So instead of asking the books — I just sent the jackets so you would know that the two books are safely in your room. I'm glad they are not lost - the books are lovely.

from opening a card you receives during Christmas week - inasmuch as I do not have an envelope that big - and folded the card to fit this envelope - okay?
We are all well and waiting for February - stay well - and normal and we all love you

Thom
