PELLICCIA DENNIS S

DEAR SPECIALIST PELLICCIA:

Upon your release from active duty you were transferred to the U. S. Army Reserve and assigned to an Individual Ready Reserve (IRR) Control Group under the administrative jurisdiction of the Commanding Officer, U. S. Army Administration Center, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63132. Your military records are now on file at this Center.

I welcome you as a member of the United States Army Reserve and wish to assure you of the Army's continued interest in your military career. I am inclosing for your information a pamphlet in which matters of interest concerning the Reserve Components, including opportunities for training and advancement, are explained.

In fulfilling your remaining service obligation as an Army Reservist, you will, along with many thousands of your fellow members, be making a vital contribution to the security of our country. The importance of a Reserve force, constantly ready to reinforce and supplement our Active Army Forces should the need arise, has been repeatedly demonstrated throughout our nation's history. I trust that, as a patriotic citizen, you will take pride in assuming this obligation and will thoughtfully consider the advantages of pursuing this phase of your military career in an active and progressive manner. It is the dedicated reservist who exemplifies the highest standard of patriotism and service to his country and commands the respect and admiration of the citizens of his community.

If I or my staff can be of assistance in any manner regarding your Reserve status, please feel free to contact me at any time.

Sincerely,

C. A. STANFIELD
Colonel, AGC
