

I am 15 years old and would like to write to a serviceman in Viet Nam, but I don't know any.

Debbie Nepermann, Dundee

PLAYBACK: There are several ways to correspond with servicemen in Viet Nam. You can address your letters to: Director, United Services organization [USO], Headquarters Support Activity, Saigon, Code 100, APO San Francisco, 96246. The USO will see that these letters are given out among the servicemen.

You also may write to the Editor of "Sea Tiger," III Marine Amphibious force, FPO San Francisco, 96602. Sea Tiger is the official newspaper of the marine corps air-ground forces in Viet Nam. It runs a list of names and addresses of civilians who want to correspond with marines. The editor will be happy to add your name to that list.

Packages and letters also may be addressed to: Field Director, American Red Cross, San Francisco, Cal., APO [insert APO number below]. If you would like to send a package to a number of men in one fighting unit, write "Contents for ——Men" [insert quantity] on the face of the package.
