Here is another short letter to make up for the one week lay off. This letter should arrive the same time as my other letter. My first letter is still in the mail box. When birds can not fly the mail does not move.

It rained yesterday, today and ~~probably~~ probably tomorrow.

That is all I have to write. Not much. Nothing to report. It just rained all day and I read all day, ate three meals and watched the radio. No calls on radio. Bob
