

1 Dec 71

There are a lot of rumors going around on when the 1st Brigade will go home, I don't know if these rumors are all true or not but by putting them all together it is clear that we are coming home soon. The rumor I heard tonight was January 15 Camp Eagle will be closed. I just don't know for sure.

One thing is for sure. I may or may not come home at that time. I would like to and I may. On the other hand I may be sent south to another unit. I am still ~~substantiated~~

scheduled to come home 5
July '72.

Nothing new besides that.
The brigade just north of us
is closing down tomorrow.
It may come next month.
I hope I will be in it.
