

V. COMMENTS OF REPORTING OFFICIAL (Be factual and specific. Add only comments which increase the objectivity of the rating.)

FACTS AND SPECIFIC ACHIEVEMENTS: Sergeant Baker's performance of duty during this reporting period has been outstanding. His adherence to the mission was unwavering. His duties were many and varied. Due to the application of his wide knowledge of the English language and appropriate training methodology, the students in his classes always met with a high degree of success in their efforts to learn a foreign language. Because of the outstanding results he achieved through his efforts, Sergeant Baker was often called upon to tutor high ranking Vietnamese officers. In addition to his instructor duties, Sergeant Baker volunteered his services as the Armed Forces Language School Photographer. In this capacity, he made himself available during significant events at the language school and captured the highlights of such events by using his photographic talents. STRENGTHS: Sergeant Baker's pleasing personality and his dedication to the teaching profession are his greatest assets. OTHER COMMENTS: Sergeant Baker recently obtained a line number for promotion to Staff Sergeant. Every effort should be expended to retain him in the United States Air Force.
