Wow. What a great family. Glad to find out you saw Tuffy. He had quite a life.

Thanks for getting the book. I did not due justice to any of you terrific pilots, but hope it brings back some memories. Let me know what you think (the good and the bad) after you read it.

Best,

Jim

Yes, I went back to the avocado groves until Hurricane Andrew wiped them out. I had moved to Okeechobee, where I had a ranch, and remarried to a lady from there. I'm still in the tractor business with my 2 sons. I still go to work every day because hunting and fishing are expensive. I now have 4 children, 3 step children, 11 grand children and 1 great grandson. We get together a lot, mostly to eat. Looking forward to a get together.

I went to see Tuffy in 1965 at the Toledo Zoo. What a monster, he must have weighed 500#. I was down there to barrow an alligator, but that's another story.

P.S. I just got your book in the mail. Looking forward to reading it.

Hey Coop,

Good to hear from you. I always wondered if you went back to the avocado groves in Homestead (I hope my memory is correct), but looks as if you went on to far bigger things. How terrific. I do hope to go to the reunion at Ft. Rucker. It would be great to get the Soc Trang tigers together for one more time.

Doc Hall,

Good to know that some of us are still around. We will make a reunion if possible.
