

THIRD YEAR COURSE

FIRST DRAFT

OUTLINE OF GRAMMAR

I am walking. BUT I love. I hate.

Verbs rarely used in Present Continuous.

He must have gone. He should have gone.

Past of defective verbs.

More work on relative pronouns

Do sit down. I do like him.

Do as a verb of insistence.

If I went, I should see.....

More clauses with if

If I were you, I should.....

If I had gone, I would have.....

Head-strong Heart-breaking

Compound adjectives and adverbs

Review since and for with perfect tenses

I had been reading when you came.

Past Perfect Continuous.

either, neither, too, both

Nor am I. So am I.

He hates drinking whisky.

Uses of gerund

He looks forward to going.

He left without paying.

I heard her come. I saw him go.

Verbs + infinitive without

He made me laugh.

to

He began to cry.

Verbs + infinitive

I shall stay as long as you are here.
while

Conjunctions as long as, while, as soon as

I shall go as soon as she comes.

I shall be working when you come.

Future Continuous

What a pretty dress! It's such a pretty dress!

Exclamations

I would rather go but I had better stay.

would rather, had better

I've had my hair cut.
I must have my bicycle mended.

Passive of all tenses

To have something done

Review and add to uses of definite and indefinite articles

I shall have gone tomorrow.

Future Perfect and Future
Perfect Continuous

More work on reported speech

ADD from second year course

Present Perfect Continuous used to frequentative