A block from the hotel is the READING (pronounced REDING) Station..an old Rail Road building (remember monopoly?). It has a farmers market and some great places to eat.

For breakfast I'd suggest looking for the Pennsylvania Dutch...Menonites...part ...for breakfast.

I think we will be in about noon - 13:00... check on us via [REDACTED].

I will off to work out in the school pool...I should be back here the most of the rest of the day ...

I have me cell phone on if I am banking / post officing/ or working on my internet stuff.

Looking forward to seeing youall.
