Dear Larry:

Thank you very much, indeed, for your letter of January 30th, regarding your comments on the English program and your specific references to Elwood Friesen and Tom Johnston. This is all very helpful to us here.

I am not certain whether we can offer you a recruiting position next year, although there may be an opportunity to do just that. I would like to have you with IVS. On the other hand, we have already made commitments for two recruiters, and at the present time with Vietnam in a state of chaos we must avoid over commitments of any kind. I appreciate your interest, and will keep this prospect very much in mind, but it is only fair to tell you that you should not count on this particular juncture.

With very best wishes to you Larry,

Sincerely,

Arthur Z. Gardiner
