Dear Larry,

I was pleased to note your interest in joining the Washington staff. Don't write off AZG's mild rebuff too quickly. Altho I havn't indicated my plans around here yet It is quite likely that I will be leaving within the next two or three months. I have sort of reached that "five year plateau" and should move somewhere, either back to Laos (perhaps your job?) or locally into urban social work.

I think you would enjoy my job (for awhile at least). As Assoc Personnel Officer I have been responsible for directing the recruitment program, interviewing applicants, advising on selections, and a variety of other tasks. My present salary is $8000 altho I started below that.

I will keep you posted as soon as my plans firm up; so hang loose a bit longer. Hope all goes well on your of the line. By the way, thanks for the compliment in your recent personnel report.

Cordially,
