Happy, Happy Holidays to all of you - What a year for Les Enfants!

First off - Becca wants me to pass along her Holiday Greetings and assurances that she is alive. She has been having "serious computer trouble" but hopes to be back on-line after the holidays. In the meantime, don't lose touch with us or each other - keep the networking going and those guest book entries coming! And if you know of anyone who isn't on our e-mail list, forward this note on to them and also let Becca and I know so we can add them to our lists.

This year has seen an incredible growth in the interest and participation in Les Enfants. The web site has continued to expand (thanks, Becca!) and draws more and more people. Our e-mail list which did not even exist at the 1995 reunion is now close to 180 and our master list is back up to around 300. The Labor Day Reunion was the best attended yet - almost 170 people attended at least one of the events. Thank you again to all of you who helped out either with the reunion itself or just by getting in touch with someone else and convincing them to come too. For those of you who made it, you know how great it was to see everyone again. What a weekend! For me, it was a case of "too little time, too many people to catch up with." The weekend was way too short to do everyone justice. I wish I could have spent more time with all of you. If you didn't attend, well, we probably talked about you...seriously, though, you were missed!!

And the good times continue. Local groups on the East & West coasts seem to informally be keeping the spirit alive with informal get-togethers. An unstructured mini-reunion in Las Vegas is on tap for the spring - watch for more on this.

Your elected officers have begun to work on planning for Reunion 2000. Ruth Hart Bollinger has been in touch with the Lao Embassy in Washington about our trip and received a very encouraging response. We will be posting some tentative dates for the association to consider as well as general information shortly. You can contact any of the officers or reunion committee members with ideas and suggestions!!

In closing, I'd like to wish all of you a Safe and Healthy 1999. May the New Year bring you good fortune and the ability to join us for Reunion 2000 in Laos!!
