Dear Mother + Dad,

Finally arrived back in Laos after an exhausting trip. I think the last card I sent you was from Athens. From there I went to Tehran where I had to spend $68 in order to get out when I wanted to. Somehow they couldn't elevate me to 1st class so I had to pay the difference. From there, I flew most of the night and arrived in New Delhi about 9:00 o'clock the next morning. The first flight out of there was some 18 hours later so checked in to a hotel and went sight-seeing. It took a whole day to see the Taj Mahal (sp) so just toured around New Delhi. I got into Bangkok on Friday morning and stayed there until Sunday afternoon. While there I had time to get all of my clothes washed and just rest.
I got up about 11:00 and went down to the pool where I swam + read until time to go eat supper + catch a movie.

I don't have a specific place to stay yet, but hope to have a permanent place by the 15th.

Have been pretty busy so far just catching up on current situation and getting checked in.

The next time you write please answer the following questions:

1. Did check arrive from Laurie?
2. Did any checks arrive from Washington?
3. Was that pin-striped shirt from H K the one you ~~that~~^{were} going mail later? If not, I left it somewhere.
4. Would you buy one outfit (clothes) for the doll that was purchased by you.
5. Can you send over 1/2 doz of T-shirts, when you send the other shirt & stuff? I got to looking at the ones I have here are in pretty bad shape.

All for now,

Love
Larry
