No Report Yet on Vietnam Peace: Chief Cabinet Secretary NIKAIDO

Chief Cabinet Secretary NIKAIDO at a press conference held toward the evening of the 23rd, said, in connection with the reports to the effect that the Vietnam peace negotiations are coming to the final stage: "U.S. Presidential Special Assistant KISSINGER has been moving with bewildering activeness in the past two or three days. It is said that as soon as the conditions for Vietnam peace are arranged, a ceasefire may be realized very quickly. However, we have not yet received any concrete reports."
