

48TH IPED UNIT HISTORY

UNIT HISTORY: The 48th IPED was activated at Fort Benning, Georgia on September 2, 1966 with LT Alan L. Jones in command. After training at Fort Benning the unit deployed to Vietnam on 11 January 1967 with a strength of 1 Officer and 14 enlisted men. Arriving in Vietnam on 15 January 1967, the platoon moved to Tay Ninh on 23 January to join the 106th Light Infantry Brigade. On 12 April 1967 moved with the 106th Infantry Brigade to Chu Lai to become part of Task Force Oregon, and later the Americal Division. In December of 1967, LT Gerald W. Washburn assumed command. The unit moved again in February of 1968 to its new location at LZ Baldy. For a four week period during April and May of 1968 the unit was located at Camp Evans near the DMZ where the 106th had moved to support the 1st Cavalry Division. On 22 November 1968 LT Robert Matuzinski assumed command. The 48th IPED remained at LZ Baldy until 14 April when they moved to LZ Hawk Hill. On 31 December 1969, LT Robert F. Allen assumed command. The unit is currently located at LZ Hawk Hill. On 16 December 1970 LT James M. Mulford assumed command.

JAMES M. MULFORD
 2LT IN
 Commanding

48TH IPD UNIT HISTORY

UNIT HISTORY: The 48th IPD was activated at Fort Benning, Georgia on September 2, 1966 with LT Glen L Jones in command. After training at Fort Benning the unit deployed to Vietnam on 11 January 1967 with a strength of 1 Officer and 14 enlisted men. Arriving in Vietnam on 15 January 1967, the platoon moved to Tay Ninh on 23 January to join the 106th Light Infantry Brigade. On 12 April 1967 moved with the 106th Infantry Brigade to Chu Lai to become part of Task Force Oregon, and later the Americal Division. In December of 1967, LT Gerald W Vestbury assumed command. The unit moved again in February of 1968 to its new location at LZ Baldy. For a four week period during April and May of 1968 the unit was located at Camp Evans near the DMZ where the 106th had moved to support the 1st Cavalry Division. On 22 November 1968 LT Robert M Mazinski assumed command. The 48th IPD remained at LZ Baldy until 12 April when they moved to LZ Hawk Hill. On 31 December 1968, LT Robert E Allen assumed command. The unit is currently located at LZ Hawk Hill. On 16 December 1970 LT James M Mulford assumed command.

JAMES M MULFORD
 2LT IN
 Commanding