Dear Bill,

At long last the Telegram I sent to Warwick caught up with him & he phoned last night with the following information He said that a normal mailing system was supposed to be operating with Saigon, but mail to the P.R.C. can also be sent to the French Ambassador

Hanoi
who has communication with the P.R.C. or UNICEF

Hanoi

He also said that the Committee for ~~Releasing~~ ^{Releasing} ~~Prisoners~~ ^{Prisoners} of the Internationalist Red Cross, ^{Geneva} may be of help.

These places all sound logical &
I hope will bring some results.

I don't know if you know the news of the bombing, but the priest called me & said that in a British published R.I. paper, it stated, that all perhaps in South East now move back in their dioceses

I had I mentioned that there was some concern for Jack — he is now back in U.S. having gone here & to Saigon & was finally evacuated to Guam — Warwick had had dinner with him but had no other news.

I have just had a delightful "holiday" up in Queenstown — it had been years since I was last there & is one of NZ's favourite spots. — I had quite forgotten how lovely it is. This weekend — a long weekend I am off to De Anam — another tourist haunt.

The days of haledging are almost over!

Unless, something spectacular happens I think I shall be moving myself up to Wellington to get a job - Invercargill is a great place if one wants to rot.

Sorry about the scotchness of this but I found my nephew doing his nails with my pen!! Don't know what happened to the aerogramme.

Do hope you have had some good news Bill

Best wishes

Plamori

P.S. - Had another letter from Jean - again, by the time it took to get to me (via Saigon) I have no idea where she is at the moment though she did say she had the offer of a job in the Sudan - the Khartoum one was off of course. etc.
