Dear Mike,

As mentioned on the phone yesterday I believe I would in fact welcome the chance to be involved in refugee work on a full-time basis. To give you a better idea of my background I'm sending a curriculum vitae, which I wrote up last fall and which calls for two observations:

- I'm now separated from my wife and am raising our 16-month-old boy alone, which limits my ability to work in the evening;
- since last November I've been employed with the Juvenile Court of Delaware County as a 'community relations officer' — which has been educational in some ways but which hasn't provided a great degree of job satisfaction, and it's for this reason that I'm interested in moving into a field where I feel I might be more productive.

Hope to hear from you —

Bill Rose
