

SRV
FILE SUBJ.
DATE SUB-CAT.
7/77 H.V. N94c

From The
Purge of a Communist General of South Vietnam

Major General Huynh Van Nghê, originally from the South, was liquidated after he expressed dissatisfaction with the Northern policies in the South.

According to the <sup>reliable</sup> ~~the~~ Vietnamese newspaper Việt-Bao, Gen. Nghê ~~was~~ <sup>BECAME</sup> ill and hospitalized. A few days later, ~~the~~ authorities announced his death, ~~but~~ <sup>WAS</sup> his next of kin were not allowed to see the corpse. After his family strongly protested and got much publicity, the authorities finally agreed to let the family in. The mouth, nose and ears of the dead general ~~were removed~~ <sup>HAD BEEN</sup> (government). The Northern ~~doctors~~ in charge of the hospital would not explain to the relatives ~~why~~.