GEN SONG HAO TOURS OFFICERS SCHOOLS

Hanoi in Vietnamese to Vietnam 1400 GMT 25 Mar 76 BK

[Text] Col Gen Song Hao, member of the party Central Committee, deputy secretary of the Central Military Party Committee and director of the General Political Department, recently visited the naval and air force officers schools and the 3d Division command. He was warmly welcomed by cadres, instructors and cadets of the schools.

The colonel general conveyed the best regards of the Central Military Party Committee and the Defense Ministry to all school cadres and cadets, praised their achievements in study and in developing their schools, and urged everyone to emulate in teaching and studying well and in building their schools into model schools of the armed forces, thus helping build a revolutionary, regular and modern army in the new stage.

On this occasion, Col Gen Song had visited the 3d Infantry Division command and had a cordial talk with cadres of the division. He inquired about the work and study and the physical and moral life of soldiers and their relationships with the local people, administration and mass organizations. The colonel general also extended congratulations and regards of the Central Military Party Committee and the Defense Ministry to all cadres and combatants, and urged everyone to step up the determined-to-win emulation drive and outstandingly fulfill all tasks--training, maintaining combat-readiness and participating in building the economy.
