Operation Situation Report Number 70-67 (U)

Period covered 101800H March to 111800H March 1967

CONFIDENTIAL

1. (C) General: 2d Battalion, 35th Infantry Task Force continued to conduct search and destroy, ambush and blocking actions as a part of the 1st Brigade, 4th Infantry Division portion of Operation SAM HOUSTON. Battery C, 2/9 Artillery and a squad from Company A, 4th Engineer Battalion remain attached to the 2/35 Infantry Task Force.

a. A/2/35 Infantry continued the mission of security of the Task Force firebase located vicinity YA677534, conducting local patrolling and ambushes from the beginning of the reporting period until 110800H March, when the company initiated movement to the south toward YA658480, closing vicinity that location at 111645H March. During the move south the company discovered an old NVA position located vicinity YA 672520, containing 25 bunkers, of which 2 had overhead cover, an NVA raincoat, and a metal container for a CHICOM and a 60mm mortar round. The ammunition container and the raincoat will be evacuated for intelligence value; the other items were destroyed in place. No resupply was effected in the night location, in order to maintain the security of the night position.

b. B/2/35 Infantry continued to conduct search and destroy operations on their assigned axis of advance, departing their night location vicinity YA673560 at 110815H March, and closing at the Task Force firebase vicinity YA677534 at 111205H March without incident. On closure, Company B assumed the mission of security of the firebase and conducted patrols and ambushes in the vicinity of the position.

c. C/2/35 Infantry was closed at the night defensive position vicinity YA696560 at the beginning of the reporting period. At 102030H March the company observed several small fires resembling NVA cooking fires at YA723556, at a range of approximately 2500 meters. Artillery was placed on the target with 35 rounds of 155mm and 112 rounds of 105mm howitzer, resulting in 10-15 secondary explosions and numerous indications of small arms ammunition being detonated by fire. An air strike was requested on the target, but was not delivered due to higher priority targets. The time-distance factor precluded a follow-up sweep of the target area by ground elements. At 110810H March, Company C departed their night location, and continued their search and destroy operation toward the south. At 111230H March, Company C discovered a battalion size base comm vicinity YA685561, composed of 150 bunkers all having overhead cover, with 8' connecting tunnels. Also located two mess halls in area. An additional 400 pounds of C4 were air dropped to C Company to permit complete demolition of the bunker complex prior to departure from the area. The company closed the night defensive position at check point 15, vicinity YA666548 at 111800H March without further incident.

e. Reconnaissance Platoon 2/35 Infantry remained attached to Company A until 110800H March, when Company A departed from the Task Force firebase. At 111205H March Company B closed the firebase, and the Reconnaissance Platoon was attached to Company B. A five man element of the platoon remained as a battalion observation post and security for an BRU element located vicinity YA696560. A four man IRRP (LRRP) "52 GOLF" designation) was inserted vicinity YA705600 at 111700H March to provide surveillance of an area of probable enemy activity, and to conduct an IZ reconnaissance for a combat assault planned for 13 March. A five man LRRP from the 3rd Brigade, 25th Infantry Division was attached at 111000H March, for operations as directed by Task Force Headquarters.

f. The Heavy Mortar Platoon 2/35 continued to support all elements of the Task Force by fire.

g. Engineer Squad, Company A, 4th Engineers, attached as the "Cacti Blue Engineers" continued improvement of the firebase, destroying trees on approaches to the helicopter landing pads.
