

Dear Ed,

15 lgt.
Just saw Homer. He sounded sincerely impressed with your memos and said you're the only guy who understands what is going on. Said he sent my An Phu memo to LBJ (?) Professed admiration for Thurgood & volunteered opinion emphatically that GVN had set in motion a process which must be played according to the rules. Apparently your message on this is getting across. afterwards

Saw Holbrooke briefly and found him very cordial so the wind ~~must be~~ ^{is} shifting.

Homer asked about your morale and expressed hope you would stay on - says he knows more from one page of your stuff than ten of the regular reporting.

Can't evaluate his sincerity, but appeared quite sincere.

He will request that Dan return for consultation (took notes on this) Also said he would write you a personal note. Rufe
