

The First Indochina War

A Conference at the Johnson Library, November 1-3, 2002

Name: _____

Number Attending: _____ ($25 per person; covers the reception Friday night, and lunch on Saturday and Sunday.
Make checks payable to the LBJ foundation.)

Work Phone: (_____) _____ Home Phone: (_____) _____ email: _____

Institutional Affiliation: _____

Mailing address: _____

Registration forms should be received by the Library by October 15, 2002. Mail to:
Lyndon B. Johnson Library, 2313 Red River Street, Austin, TX 78705-5702
For further information: Telephone: 512-916-5137, ext. 265; fax 512-478-9104; ted.gittinger@nara.gov

The First Indochina War

Friday, November 1

7:00 p.m. Keynote Address

Lloyd Gardner, Rutgers University

"Halfway Commitment? Truman and Eisenhower Consider Vietnam in Light of American History"

7:30 p.m. Reception for audience and participants

*Cold War History Project - 13 Oct 2002
with. 51, 2002 - 10.00 a.m. 11/2/02*

Saturday, November 2

9:00-10:30 Panel 1: The Franco-Vietminh War
in History

(Chair: Fredrik Logevall, University of California, Santa Barbara)

Mark Bradley, University of Wisconsin-
Milwaukee, "Global Modernity and Vietnam:
Rethinking Narratives of the French War"

Lien-Hang Nguyen, Yale University
"The 'Other' Side: Vietnamese Perspectives on the French War"

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-1:00 Panel 2: Vietnamese Nationalism
and the End of the Pacific War

(Chair: Robert Divine, University of Texas at Austin)

William J. Duiker, Penn State University
"Ho Chi Minh and People's War"

Christopher Goscha, Université de Lyon
"Mobilization, Propaganda, and Proselytizing
the Revolution in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam"

✓ Stein Tønnesson, International Peace Research Institute, Oslo, "Roosevelt, Indochina, and Deception at the End of the Pacific War"

✓ David Marr, Australian National University
"Building Defense Capacity: The Democratic Republic of Vietnam, 1945-1947"

1:00-2:30 Lunch, Thompson Conference Center

A Conference at the Johnson Library
November 1-3, 2002

2:30-4:30 Panel 3: Colonialism and Cold War
(Chair: H.W. Brands, Texas A&M University)

✓ Martin Thomas, University of the West of England, "French Imperial Reconstruction
and the Development of the Indochina War, 1945-1950"

✓ Mark Lawrence, University of Texas at Austin
"Forging the 'Great Combination':
Britain and the Beginning of U.S.
Involvement in Vietnam"

Laurent Cesari, University of Arras
"Between Germany and Vietnam: France and the European Defense Community"

Marilyn Young, New York University
"One War: Korea and the First Indochina War"

Sunday, November 3

9:00-11:00 Panel 4: The End of the French War
(Chair: Frank Gavin, University of Texas at Austin)

✓ Kathryn Statler, University of San Diego
"The End of the Présence Française? Franco-American Relations and France's Role in Vietnam after Geneva, 1954-1960"

✓ Chen Jian, University of Virginia
"China and the Indo-China Settlement
at the Geneva Conference of 1954"

✓ Edward Miller, Harvard University
"In Search of the 'National Revolution':
Ngô Đinh Diêm During the First Indochina
War, 1946-1954"

✓ John Prados, National Security Archive
"Assessing Dien Bien Phu"

11:00-12:00 Concluding Thoughts

Betty Sue Flowers, Director,
Lyndon Johnson Library

Fredrik Logevall, University of California,
Santa Barbara

12:00 Lunch, Thompson Conference Center

The First Indochina War

The First Indochina War: Nationalism, Colonialism, and Cold War

November 1-3, 2002

LBJ Library, Austin

Lyndon Johnson Library, 8th floor Atrium

A conference, "The First Indochina War: Nationalism, Colonialism, and Cold War" will be held at the LBJ Library in Austin, Texas, November 1-3, 2002. A group of international scholars will gather to examine the latest historical research on this topic. Professors Mark Lawrence and Fred Logevall are the conference organizers. The Library has previously sponsored three other such conferences on the wars in Indochina: Vietnam: The Early Decisions, published by The University of Texas Press, International Perspectives on Vietnam, published by Texas A&M Press; and Vietnam: The Search for Peace in the Johnson Years.

Registration Information:

There is a $25 fee for registration. This covers the reception on Friday evening and lunch on Saturday and Sunday. To ensure reserving a place, please return the attached registration form and a check made out to the LBJ Foundation.

Hotel Accommodations:

Convenient and economical places to stay: Days Inn—University, 3105 N. IH 35, 78722, 512-478-1631; also Rodeway Inn—University, 2900 N. IH 35, 512-477-6395. Both are within easy walking distance of the Library.

Also:

Marriott at the Capitol

512-478-1111

Driskill Hotel

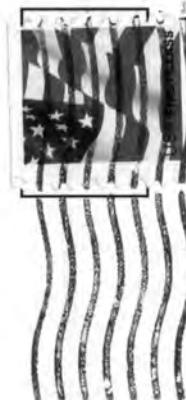

512-474-5911

Club Hotel by Doubletree

512-479-4000

Courtyard by Marriott (N. IH 35)

1-800-321-2211

Lyndon Baines Johnson Foundation
2313 Red River Street
Austin, TX 78705

The First Indochina War:
Nationalism, Colonialism,
and Cold War

08/12/02

PHILLIPS

2210143500 33

The First Indochina War: Nationalism, Colonialism, and Cold War

A Conference
at the Johnson Library
November 1-3, 2002

President Eisenhower, French Army Chief of Staff Paul Ely, and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Admiral Arthur Radford, at the White House, March 23, 1954. Courtesy Hazel O. Stitt, Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library.