>Hi Guys,

>I thought that I would forward a few pictures to you prior to the reunion.
>Some may be suitable for the C25 web site, up to you. As I mentioned >to you previously, I do plan on attending the reunion. Unfortunately,
>I have medical issues and depending on treatment options, I may have to back out.
>I did however reserve a room at the Marriott for myself and my wife. I >will know more after I meet with the specialist next week. Hopefully I >will be in shape to attend.

>With regards to the photos, I will tell you what I remember.

>I took this one from the door of a slick. Charlie company had met up >with Alpha company ( I think) and we were extracted out of Cambodia by slick.
>One bird at a time since the LZ was only large enough for one. The >troopers on the perimeter were waiting for their ride out. The >extraction was June 29, 1970. This was a couple days after we were in >heavy combat and lost Larry Bowman and I think Robert Steele, we had >quite a few wounded as well. The bad guys were trying to protect their >cache's, but we flushed them out and blew up their stash.

>I like this one, seldom did we get group pictures. This was taken on >our first fire base in Cambodia. I think it was LZ XRAY.
>Front row: Roger Kiddy and Gary ( Goldie ) Howell.
>Standing: Richard Furguson, Roger Lewis, Thomas (Peabody) Grover, David >Resendez, Larry Fox, Tim Dube, Mike Combs and I believe Rev Ferrigan.
>I think I got all these right, if not, I apologize.
>I have many more pictures that I will bring to the reunion.
>Hope all is well with you guys and I can't wait for the big weekend.
>Until then, be well.
