Dear Colonel Moore:

I am in the process of submitting my manuscript for publication to a reputable publisher. The manuscript is a biography of deceased U.S. Marine Colonel Donald Gilbert Cook, and has the tentative title of Col Don Cook.

In the manuscript, I would like to include your photograph provided to me by you.

I would also like to cite you by name as the source of quotations from our past conversations and correspondence and include those quotations in the manuscript.

I would greatly appreciate your granting me permission to include all of the above in the manuscript and would be grateful if you would waive any permission fees.

A self-addressed envelope is enclosed for your mailing convenience and a copy of this agreement for your retention.

Sincerely,
