Dear Mr. Machak:

Under the provisions of Sections 3-501 and 3-504, Executive Order 12065, a researcher has requested the mandatory declassification review of the enclosed documents from our holdings. The enclosed document list identifies the Library file which contains the documents. This request is from donated historical material; therefore, Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act exemptions may not be cited.

Although you will be notifying the researcher of your decision, we request a copy of your response so that we may mark the documents appropriately. If you sanitize any documents, please provide us a copy. If subsequent appeal results in a decision to declassify more material, please inform the Library.

If there is any question concerning this request, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

David C. Humphrey
Archivist

Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Machak:

Under the provisions of Section 3-503, Executive Order 12065, a researcher has requested the mandatory declassification review of the enclosed White House-originated document from our holdings. The enclosed document list identifies the Library file which contains the document. This request is from donated historical material; therefore, Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act exemptions may not be cited.

Please review the document and advise the National Security Council whether, in your opinion, the document may be declassified. Please forward the document copy to the National Security Council. The National Security Council will then advise the Library of its recommendation and return the document copy to the Library.

If there is any question concerning this request, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

David C. Humphrey
Archivist
