Vung Tau

Vung Tau is located on the coast 125km south-east of Ho Chi Minh City and has become a weekend destination for residents of Vietnam's largest city. There are a few pagodas and you can hike up the two mountains on the nearby peninsula, but Vung Tau is a town with plenty of cafes, bars, restaurants and a few discos.

The main beach is Bai Sau (Back Beach) which stretches for about 8km at the east. Bai Dua (Roches Noire Beach) is 2km south of the town centre. The beach itself is a great place to sit and watch the sunset. On the west side of the town is Bai Tru. About 3km further north is Bai Dau (Mulberry Beach).

Other things to see are Thich Ca Phat Dai Pagoda and Park, the giant statue of Jesus (one in Rio de Janeiro) and Bach Dinh villa (a former royal residence). Golfers might like the international standard Paradise Marina Golf Club, but expect to pay international standard rates.

Getting There

Vung Tau is served by regular and minibus services from Ho Chi Minh City that run from early morning to early evening. The 125km journey takes around 2 hours, and you can book tickets through travel agents. There is also a regular hydrofoil service that departs from Ho Chi Minh City 3 times per day and takes about 75 minutes. More.....
