A brief look at the social life — Barbara Smaus, Theta of last semester, was one of the imports for the Mil ball Friday, the man extending the invite being Dictator Knowles, PiKA Blue Penciler . . . An addition to this item might be that the two are engaged and will be married in about two months . . . George Miller, Alpha Delt, continued his fast pace in the Alpha Xi house with Dottie Cameron by escorting her to the ball . . . Claude Thornhill, by the way, provided the best sweet, mellow swing and jive Friday that has been brought to this campus since Harry James took the campus by storm at last year's Junior prom . . . Shirley Spring, Chicago gal staying at the Tri-Delt, was the guest of Barrett Dillow, Beta Kappa senior . . . Dick Bennett, Phi Tau, has been boasting to the brothers that he is the first cousin of Olivia de Havilland, movie star.

The first two readers to present this column at the Rialto box office will receive two free passes to "The Fleet's In," with Dorothy Lamour and William Holden and Jimmy Dorsey . . . 'Nuff said.

Toddie Norlin, Theta, transferred her love back to the PiKA house last Friday by taking in the ball with Jack Oliver . . . Dick Telander, Phi Psi, imported his blonde venus from LaGrange for this week's activities . . . Joan Lamb, KKG, once more esides a beautiful Chen... ing, James Rogers, executive secretary of the Independent Men's association at Oklahoma university, thinks Illinois has beautiful women.

He also contributed, "I suggest you install 'tag' dancing all together. It really is more fun. What girl would not rather dance with 15 boys than one?"

Maxine Ashier, the new co-ed executive of Purdue, commented on the campus saying, "The Illinois campus is much more spread out than Purdue's. We nearly walked ourselves to death trying to get a little view of the campus.

Ellen Suttner, retiring co-ed executive of Purdue, stated, "I was very favorably impressed with the gym facilities for women—that being my chief interest. The boys dance funny—small steps."

Ruth Miller, women's activity chairman of the Purdue Independent association, remarked, "I like all of the beautiful trees along the walks.
In going through your Woman's building, I think that your textile department is good."
