There are twenty-four more shopping days until Easter and only forty-six more school days until final exams, and, for some, a year in the army or worse. Too, spring is scheduled to appear this Friday but from all indications it will appear with a blowout.

Doris Healy, Kappa Alpha Theta, announces her engagement to William P. Shuber, Phi Delta Theta and now a 2nd lieutenant in the army, stationed at Scott Field, Belleville. She returned to the campus late Sunday evening after a visit there, wearing the huge nugget. It was an 18 month affair. Doris formerly held the Phi Delt pin of Bob Good while Bill had his badge on Lois Blue during the same period. Lots of luck to these two swell people.

Carol Ege, Alpha Chi senior, accepted the Phi Gamma Delta pin of Howie Clement at the curfew hour last nite, her second pin as she had another John Street button last year, that of Ed Perry, Delt The Heather has a new line of nifty skirts for the ladies Sally Jean Turner, Kappa, is now wearing the Phi Delt pin of Johnny Hayes after a whirlwind dateship...she gave Hervie Parker his pin back only three weeks ago George Miller, Alpha Delt cowboy, was in town Saturday nite telling about the four girls he drove to California...he took care of them all, of course Marge Westcott, Chi O, got the old railroad party in action Saturday when she and her pals failed to name Donna Brehm, Alpha Omicron Pi, as a candidate for Woman's League presidency...Donna was one of the leading workers, had a 4.5 average, and gave up two other activities to devote all of her moments to Woman's League...even her rivals will admit that she was robbed...it is reported that a political deal was made whereby some of the big houses would have their vote tied up due to the nomination of three girls from large sororities for junior jobs...one of these candidates admits openly she does not want the job while another wasn't even figuring on a place...such a setup might enable the railroad candidate to slip into the coveted post...beware of the ideas of March Jim Stables, Beta, will be married in Du Quoin on the 29th of this month to Ruth Lee, Pi Phi, who left school before Christmas due to ill health Jimmie Barker's Classic Cafe-----a good place to go and forget your troubles Mary Jane Glennan, Dotty Fisher, and Lucy Nichols, all Alpha Chis, were enroute to the campus Saturday with Dick Nelson, Indee, when they crashed and demolished the car without any injury to the occupants Dean Golden McConnell passed his bar exam and is now building a new house in the Twin Cities...he and Abe Martin, Sigma Chi, are now at Oberlin, Ohio for some sort of a conference The Chi O's have a new victrola a new bit of fun will be enjoyed at the 608 Club...steins with your name on, free Art Johnson, Delta Chi, had to be poured off the train Saturday nite as his date, Theta Kranny Healy, watched in anger Nancy Kaulbfleisch, KKG pledge, had a huge nite at the DKE dance and was home in bed at twelve midnight..... a nasty gang this Wilkens family

Pin hanging ... Marty Gilbert, AOPI, is now proudly wearing the PIKA badge of Zeis Gumm, prexy of the brotherhood from the same sorority we find that Frances Roske, pin girl of Jack Kelleher, Alpha Sig, was suddenly stricken with an attack of appendicitis Sunday afternoon. Frances was rushed to the hospital and underwent an operation. May we all hope that her recovery is as sudden as her misfortune..... Marge Stumpe, KKG, and her Phi Psi pin-man, Ward Fioke spent the week-end in St. Louis.

Jim Van Winkle, Theta Xi, and chairman of the Freshman Frolic, informs us that he received a personal letter from the band leader, Cab Calloway. The important part of the note tells us that he will not play entirely jazzy, fast selections, but will throw in plenty of sweet swiny numbers. The dance to be held in Huff Gymnasium on March 29th should be one of the better "foot-irritators" of the season. Buy your tickets at the Student Center today !!!

The other day while window shopping on the campus we ran across some of the best looking stationary we have seen in many a day. It's cheap, too! Before writing your honey back home, drop in and let Al Daniels and Wayne Schlentz show you the many varieties of parchment they have to offer.

MAN of the Week

This week we pick on a lad who has really put the name of our university before the public eye during the last week or so. He has been an outstanding performer on the cinder path, toppling the indoor world record for the 70 yard low hurdles and equalling the same time and time again. Donald Olsen is our MAN of the WEEK.

Don is a member of the Beta Kappa fraternity. His home is in, Park Ridge, Illinois. The main influence in Don's attending this popular institution came about through the efforts of Mr. Wilson, athletic director. During the summer previous to his enrollment he daddled his time away on the western ranch of Mr. Wilson.

In high-school playing the roll of under study to the great De-Correvont was Don's duty.

This all took place at Austin high-school where our MAN of the WEEK later went on to become rather distinguished in his special event - the hurdles. Just where he acquired the ability to skim over the bar he can not recall. However, his uncle was the captain of the University of Wisconsin track team the year before our entrance into the World War.

It is Don's opinion that the athletics in general at the U. of I. are greatly improving. The material is more outstanding and we should have some championship teams in the near future -- just keep the boys eligible!

After graduation it is his ambition that there might be some small college coaching job open and waiting for him to fill in the gap. This past summer he got his taste of the business world when he traveled through-out the east while working for his father.

He is quite a lover, too. For the past two years Don has been on the winning Turkey Run duet - bringing home the bacon for the AOPI's this year. He, like many of the casanovas, thinks the campus is a great place, especially eyeing the new crop of girls each year. At the present he is dating Nell Wermine.

WOMAN of the Week

When calling upon Miss Eleanor Anderson for her pedigree so that we might make her WOMAN of the WEEK, she told us, "gee, I haven't any." However, after conversing with her a few minutes, we were amazed at her progress and are happy to report the same in this column.

Miss Anderson is our second town girl to appear here in the same number of weeks. Her dad has a PH.D. and is a professor in the College of Agriculture. Consequently, Eleanor has lived here all of her life, being born in Champaign and now living in Urbana.

ELEANOR ANDERSON
Illio Woman's Editor

Alpha Phi sorority claims Eleanor as one of their distinguished members as she has brought to them many honors. This year she is woman's editor of the Illio, one of the best yearbook publications in America and a job highly prized every year. In her sophomore term she worked in Star Course, Theatre Guild, Woman's League, the Y. W. C. A., gaining a place in Torch, sophomore honorary as well as Shi-AI. Her freshman year she was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta. Since then she has been crowned a Phi Beta Kappa, the acme of scholastic achievement, Alpha Lambda Delta, and is in Shorter Board.

Eleanor is majoring in bio-chemistry and expects to go away to some university next fall to continue her work in the graduate field of study. After her school work is concluded she hopes to indulge in research work or else teach school.

In the summers Eleanor works at Yellowstone Park, being employed at the lodges there where she does chores which she describes as "lodgemaids or flunkies." Anyway, she has a wonderful time and is again looking forward to the coming vacation.

Eleanor plays tennis and skates, dating now and then but preferring to not be tied up with anyone, as yet. Her scholastic average is a 4.3 which is tops in any league and tempts us to ask, "the formula, please!"

The footballers reported Saturday for the first drill of the spring session, getting a glimpse of the new formation which coach Zuppke hopes will work as a revival of Illini winning ways after many seasons of famine. The installation of a new system marks the fourth which we have seen in the same number of years, praying that this one will be the charm as something certainly is needed. A new face on the coaching staff appeared in the person of Bunny Oakes, deposed University of Colorado coach and maker of famous "Whizzer" White. He is an Illinois graduate and is now taking a few courses here.

The state basketball championship will be decided this coming Saturday with the schoolboys battling it out in Huff Gymn, starting Friday nite when there will be two games. We know nothing about the teams but just for the fun of it will pick Urbana, Canton, Centralia, and Morton to play Friday nite with Centralia winning out and Morton in third place, Canton and Urbana second and fourth, respectively.

It is reported in reliable quarters that the baseball team will take a southern trip again this year, probably around the first of next month, however, the destination nor time is a certainty yet as it is the usual deep secret.

What the squak is about: Bob Eisner, Beta, had a date with Betty Gallaway Saturday evening only to be left waiting at the door step.. Dick Barlow, Sigma Nu heart-beat of frau Bett didn't show up until eleven o'clock anyway which somewhat repaid the little one for her foul play Tom Tyrrell, sophomore independent, will be one of the artists in the Illini Theatre Guild production, "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," at Lincoln Hall Theatre Friday and Saturday nights... The play ran 75 weeks on Broadway in 1928 and should be very fine... tickets are 50¢ at the Student Center... Ronnie Ronalds will do a fancy number Dixie Howell, Delt pledge, is enrolled in the engineering school and has a schedule which includes history, political science, geology, and spanish... wouldn't you like him to design your house? Jake Schafer, Phi Delt grad, is now stationed at Fort Knox, Kansas, in the motorized unit. ..he was captain of the polo team here Pat Pape, Theta, has her pin chained to the wings of Don May, Clemson graduate of Ashville, North Carolina, who is now taking an advanced course in aeronautics at Purdue Roger Downs, Delt ping-pongist who holds the Indiana State championship with a national ranking of 15, number 2 in mixed doubles and number 5 in men's doubles, is now at Culver-Stockton, Missouri for the nationals along with Harvey Hensel, DU lawyer and all-university champ for 2 years..... Joe Nestor, Beta, will be inducted into the army in May Eddie Ashdown, Phi Delt, sent Gloria Wieber, Gamma Phi beta from Northwestern, two telegrams on Valentine's Day without even knowing her... she visited the campus recently and Eddie was so dazzled by her good looks that he asked about her name, address, etc., and sent her the messages... he also sent several Thetas notes of the same variety when he was not acquainted Don Keinlen, Indee, wants it to be known that he is one swimmer who has been loyal to his girl when away on trips... he has a love in Elgin Call for Ye Tavern Beer the next time at your favorite bar

The largest turnout in spring football history is an indication that the Zuppke "puppets" will be out to revive the old slogan 'Fighting Illini'. The boys are raring to go -- already they are beginning to feel seasoned and are ready to work together as a team and not as eleven individuals.

YE TAVERN BEER, too, is one of the best teammates you will ever find. It is well seasoned and raring to go. Stick with YE TAVERN BEER and just see how the two of you work together.
