

DAY - TIME

BY BOB DAY

The moan of football parlay losers is still to be heard all over the campus, as one of the greatest upset weeks has just been completed. It seems as if all of the losers had planned on using their winnings for their dates on Saturday night. The social season really got underway this weekend with a number of pledge dances, and crowds at all of the local "spots".

The picture at the left is of none other than your editor of this paper last year, Frank Page. It seems that Frank is well pleased with his present job, but he claims that this working doesn't compare to the life at the State U. Frank plans to return to the campus for Homecoming, and at the same time bring back a few college memories. Note the thick amount of hair on the old bean.

The Alpha Deltas, Psi Us, and Dekes had the annual get together and it seemed to us that there were more imports than local gals. The Illinois women must be slipping although it does seem an impossibility.

It has been requested by quite a few people that we run a chart on the number of pins which have been passed out by the fraternities. We have compiled a list which we hope is accurate..

HOUSE	P.	M.	HOUSE	P.	M.
Beta Theta Pi.....	12	50	Phi Psi.....	5	49
Delta Upsilon.....	12	51	SAE.....	13	59
DKE.....	7	42	Sig Chi.....	13	50
Kappa Sig.....	11	52	Phi Delt.....	8	60
Phi Gam.....	3	47	Theta Delt.....	4	30
Alpha Delt.....	3	40	Delts.....	5	48

P-pins M-men
Out of 12 sororities there were 129 pins, and out of 12 fraternities there were 94 .

Bob Eagle, Beta, hung his pin on Franny Healy, Theta queen... Frieda Seward, Cagle Hall, is still wondering when she will get the Alpha Chi Rho pin of Ivan Richardson, Law student??? Just like ham and eggs....Bidwell's candies and pin hangings. Tom Ryan, Deke, hung his badge on Jane Riley a home town gal.....Florence Morgan, Delta Zeta, is using her southern accent to a good advantage these days on Gene Van der Walker, Phi Gam.....From all reports, it looks as if the big name bands are going to be very scarce this year on the campus. It seems that they are booked up with theater engagements, and are steering clear of one night stands..... Don't forget those Illio pictures by Miles.... Tiny Cramer, Delt was down for the weekend, and was seen at one of the spots'till the wee small hours.....

The first big dance of the semester will take place this Saturday night in Huff Gym. Dance to the smooth music of Abe Lyman and his Californians a swell time is in store for all so make it a point to be there ! What ADPi recently took a pin a twelve o'clock mid-night on a week day ? Must have been one of those late decisions "Red" Bruninga, newly elected Senior Class Vice President for the '42 Party, taking over with Marion Shephard where Dean Wessel left off..... drop over to the Mid-way any time for a good party and enjoy Cal Shull's perfect hospitality Harriet Miller, AOPi pledge, blossoming out and is rated as one of more lovelier new-comers.....she's not going steady either ! Bob Day, ye editor, dating Ginny Richardson of the Kappa Alpha Theta maison.. Wednesday evening at 7:30 there will be another All-University Sing in the Auditorium let's oil up the ol'e vocal cords and attend in true Illini style the Phids have taken over Bidwell's for their get-togethers Nancy Kalbfleisch, KKG, rather perplexed this week-end when her old flame, Hoot Evers came to town and she already had a date with Chuck Hawkins, Delt pretty boy..... Nancy ended up in Brown Hall with the Alpha Delt and not seeing either Hoot or Mr. Hawkins the Alpha Delts enjoyed a beer picnic last night and on Sunday, too.... tsk-tsk Lou Overgard sends the good news that a lot of sunny California's fashions are headed straight for ol'e Champaign better drop in and browse around n' see them..... Jodie Buntin in town to see his girl, Rita O'Connor, AOPi..... Drink Ye Tavern beer you'll like it and ask for it all the time.....

MAN of the Week

by

Kirk Kirkpatrick

He is known as Richard Thomas Knowles at the Dean's office, but everyone else knows our Man of the Week as Dick Knowles, captain of the Illinois Fencing Team.

Although, Dick never saw a sword while at Calumet High School in Chicago, he was one of the mainstays of Illinois' fencing team last year in the saber department, and will undoubtedly lead the squad to even greater victories this year.

However Dick's fencing is not the only reason why he is so well-known and well liked on the Illinois campus. His other activities include a vice-presidency of Tomahawk, presidency of Sachem, and Dictator of Blue Pencil - sophomore, junior, and senior honoraries. He is vice-president of the Tribe of Illini a member of Scabbard and Blade, on the cabinet of the Y.M.C.A., and whether Coach Garrett approves or not, a member of the Band of X.

Dick's ability in military matters can be readily seen, for he is a major in the ROTC. He spent six weeks this summer at Camp McCoy in Wisconsin.

A senior in the Engineering school, majoring in Mechanical Engr. Dick would like to continue his work here and obtain a Masters degree. However Dick will probably go into the Army next June as a second lieutenant in the Field Artillery.

Dick worked for two years in the research department of the Amer. Can Co. before coming to Illinois. and he has worked the three years he has been in school. Living as an independent for a year, Dick is now a staunch member of Pi Kappa Alpha (PiKA to you)

His favorite hobby is sailing, a sport at which Dick is a past master. He has already planned a four day sailing trip on Lake Michigan this Thanksgiving in a 40 foot sloop, with five of his fraternity brothers.

Dick's statement that "there are two many nice girls at Illinois" is a good example of why Dick is so well liked. This tall, blond's pleasant personality and swell disposition will always win him the vote for being one grand fellow.

WOMAN of the Week

by

Ruth Meyer

"If you wish to attend school in a typical college town, make true friends, and have plenty to eat, go to the University of Illinois." And so, two years ago Hui-I (Esther in English) Liang came to Illinois on the recommendation of a Chinese teacher in a Shanghai Episcopalian university. Editor's note: He did not mention our football team, but Hui-I had heard of Red Grange.

One day shortly after her arrival on campus, Hui-I went drug-store shopping. While she was paying for a purchase, Arthur Toy, Chinese chemistry student, introduced himself. Result - one two year romance which may pay dividends in the future.

Hui-I, who has never worn a hat in her life, graduated during this year's summer school session and is now working toward her master's degree in history. After obtaining her doctor's degree she will probably join her ambitious mother, working for the Hong Kong Women's Soldiers' Relief, if marriage does not interfere with her career. After the Chino-Japanese War Esther hopes to lend a hand in the reconstruction of China. Esther's father is a supervisor of a tungsten mine in South-Western China, a regularly air-raided section, 1,000 miles from Hong Kong.

Esther is deeply devoted to the United States, Roosevelt, and American chocolate cake. Her favorite meal is a steak dinner with fresh asparagus, but no potatoes. Also, she does not appreciate, quote "the good old American institution of apple pie."

Someday Hui-I hopes to own an American formal dress, but at present her most comfortable combination is her Chinese dress and saddle shoes -

Fast meets West. Although Arthur wishes that she possessed just one American suit, Hui-I prefers slacks. However, the main attraction for Esther in western styles is the combination of colors, for in China there is very little variety of odd color combinations in clothes.

In America Hui-I Liang has continued her education, from the art of history to the science of coking. She has made countless friends, developed new tastes, and -- cultivated Arthur.
