

DAY - TIME

BY BOB DAY

And once again we're with you after a weekend which was filled with athletic contests and social functions. Many pledge dances were in progress both Friday and Saturday nights which claimed the attention of a greater share of the students. Both the football and hockey teams made a very impressive showing, and let's hope that they continue to do as well in the future.

The big army dance next weekend is really getting the support of the local co-eds, and from all reports it ought to be a big success. It seems that the Kappas and Thetas are leading the list with a goodly number of girls signing up.

Shirley Keil, ADPI came back to the campus this weekend for the pledgiance and was wearing the DU pin of John Grable, Chief Illiniwek of last year. At present John is in the army in Alabama, and so the pin hanging took place via the mails.....For a good tasting beer.....Griesedieck Beer..... Jean Sager, Gamma Phi was the proud possessor of an SAE pin Saturday night. It was returned the next morning though.....Johnny Drish, Delta Chi basketball captain of last year, out with Marge Wiley Alpha Chi.....George Meharry, DKE, passed out cigars for the third time in 8 months, hanging his pin on one of the Cagle Hall lassies.....Norman-Anderson carries a complete line of Brochon Jewelry.....Billy Reeder, Chi Psi alum back for the weekend and the Chi Psi pledge dance.....Jim Taggart, Beta, hung his pin on Marge Bitzer, Pi Phi.....After a brief romance filled with pin hangings and unhangings, Lou Rink, ADPI has definitely decided to return the Phi Kappa Alpha pin of Bob Sullivan.....For fun and enjoyment.....Cal Shull's Midway.....Pat Gagan, Chi O took the Sig Chi pin of Jay Staley.....The boys that are with the Marines came into town this weekend. One of their number, Bill Swisher, has not arrived yet. Nancy Harshman, Chi O was down this weekend, and had a date with Bill Moody, Delt.....Jack Shotwell, DKE was so surprised at getting a phone call from N. Dakota that he forgot about the time and talked for one-half hour..... The Heather has a big surprise up its sleeve, so be on the look-out for it girls.....It seems that two different people asked Jean Tyrrell to go steady with them Gracie Andreason, Alpha Gam was down this weekend for the third consecutive week. Incidentally she had a date with Bob Falkenstein, Kappa Sig.....The University sing which was handled by John McDonald really packed in the crowd with 700 persons being turned away. Even though some sources haven't given out a little adverse criticism, it was a big success in our estimation, and congratulations are in order for John..... There is still time to get your Illio pictures in on time....Drop down to the Miles Studio today.....

MAN of the Week

by

Kirk Kirkpatrick

Our Man of the Week this week is Mel Kurlander, one of the most pleasant and jovial personalities on the Illini campus. Mel's home is Chicago (Illinois) where he attended Sullivan High School.

Mel's main activity, outside of good parties, has been politics. He is the Phi Epsilon Pi representative of the 42 party and was a member of the Junior Prom Committee last year. Curly, as he is often called, was also a member of the freshman basketball squad and one of its managers his sophomore year.

TO HIM WHO WATCHES EVERYTHING IS REVEALED

Mel has always been outstanding in intramural sports. Mel took 2nd place in individual points earned last fall, one of his strong points being tennis, in which he and his partner annexed the third place trophy in doubles.

Having trouble finding a picture of our boy, we decided to use the cut above which represented two of his favorite hobbies - women and tennis. Although Mel has had his pin out three times during his three years here, he claims that he has at last found the real thing in Jane Harding, beautiful Chicagoite, whom, according to the latest report he telephones several times a week.

A senior in Commerce, studying Business Administration, Mel intends to join his father's firm when he graduates. The fact that his father is a manufacturer of ladies suits and coats probably accounts for Curly's varied love interests on campus. Just trying to get ideas?

Like all Illini males Mel likes good parties, stating that his idea of a good time is a hayride with b--r (a beverage) and a girl you like. However Mel claims that this year studies are going to take up most of his time. Like many a senior he has come to the conclusion that although grades are not all important, they sure do help.

Mel's statement that Illinois is the best university in the country is typical of his attitude toward everyone and we are sure that his pleasant personality will make him a success in whatever he attempts to do.

WOMAN of the Week

by

Les Frailley --
-- pinch hitting for Ruth Meyer

It is a distinct pleasure each week to interview one of our young co-eds for WOMEN of the WEEK, the beautiful-eyed lovely pictured below being particularly interesting to us as she possesses all the qualities of personality-plus and leadership. Olivia Baker, Theta rushing chairman, is this person.

Olivia came to Illinois from Winnetka where she was among the more lovelier girls of township. During her two years as an Illini she has been a stand-out in the personality department. This, no doubt, being the reason for her nomination as rushing chairman for Pan-Hell and likewise for the newly decorated Theta maison. For two years she has worked diligently on the Illio staff and thereby received the honor of being a member in Sigma Iota Beta, Women's Illio honorary.

In the field of women's attire, of which we publisher does not claim to be an authority in any department, Olivia finds that going formal on occasions is agreeable, but she would prefer the soft sweater and knock-about skirt the majority of the time. Her knowledge of what to wear with what may be said to be of the best for Olivia has worked in Field's College Shop in Evanston for two summers -- being in charge in the department this past vacation -- a credit to anyone in the leadership line.

At the present Olivia may be seen dating numerous Illini men, Caton Cobb for one and Jack Weber for another. However, these acquaintances are strictly plutonic, as she wears the Alpha Delt pin of graduate Roger Pogue who is now in Cleveland, Ohio. In the pin wearing field the acquisition of the fraternity badges of Bill Moody, Delt, and Bud Brown, SAE, were once resting next to her Theta pin.

Living on the shore of Lake Michigan is evidence enough that our lovely is an excellent swimmer. Golf is also a foremost hobby. Her score on the links not being so good, but she just plays for fun anyhow. When Olivia graduates she has the intention of striving for a higher goal by entering the Art Institute in Chicago and learning interior decorating.

DAY · TIME

Helen Hobbs, AOPi received three telegrams in a row with one word in each one..We'll let you guess those three little words??? Incidentally it was from Clint Pickett, KDR.....

The number of Kappa pledges with pins was upped one last Saturday night when Dowdy Dow took the Sig Chi pin of Dick Hart.....There are now 4 with pins-Kay Hicks Joan Lamb, Nancy Betts, and Dowdy Dow.....Jean Gregory, Chi O and Fred Ilseman, Alpha Chi Rho, looked rather bored at the letters pledge dance..one was engaged in a game of solitaire and the other reading the comics.....

Alice Denell, AOPi has finally given up the Betas for better fields.. Remember to ask for Dick's Beer... Gill Boggs, Kappa, was on the campus for the weekend..... Don Garwood, Farm House and Y vice-president, has gone sour on the local girls, and is importing a Taylorville Farm Bureau Queen for their pledge dance.....For latest styles....Overgard's..... Grace De Vries, Delta Gam took the Phi Delt badge of Erad Blount last Friday night.....Julius Kuney and Bob Jones Phi Gams are both batting it out in the Hazel Miller league. Vivian Marx, Alpha Gam pledge received 2 bunches of roses, and 5 telegrams from local men while in the hospital.. Knippy" Knippenberg, KKG was presented with a big cardboard Beta pin by all of the boys who have had more than 2 dates with her.....For a lot of fun.... Lou Hodge's 608 Club..... Nancy Kalbfleisch, Kappa, does not intend to be married this summer as previously reported..... Jane Davies, DDD, back for the weekend to go to the Chi Psi pledge dance with Phil Danley..... Dottie Gillick, Kappa, would not break her date to go out with John Drish so she compromised and came home at 12.....See that Chet Gray, Kappa Sig and "Gate" Blum were upholding the Rochester standards.....Don't neglect your health...drink Hudson Dairy Milk.....Captain Giese, DDD sipping coke the other night..... Dottie Jones Morse, Kappa was back in town for the weekend..... Buzz Johnson, Delt army officer now stationed at Fort Sill will be back for a short visit.....For your Illio photographs....Paul Stone George Coates, Skull from Penn, came all the way out here to see Marnie Murry, KKG.....Chuck Russell, KDR back to see Jane Rumpf Delta Gam.....Bud Bruce, Theta Xi, back in town to see May Whitford Tri-delt.....It seems that Bill Kramer, Delt columnist, was out in the cold Saturday night when Marian Shepherd had a date with Dean Wessel, also a Delt..Bill ended up at the Tri-Delt dance. It seems as if "once in the DDD league, always in it"..Ruth Meyer, AOPi, the victim of two potent wisdom teeth, gives way to her pin man for the writing of the WOMEN of the WEEK

You're Telling Me - by Jane Ireland

Seen having a tiff in front of the library were DU smoothie Nils Soderholm and gorgeous Letty Huber, DG pledge. Could it have been over that Wabash Phi Delt who appeared on campus this weekend?The latest thing in devotion as illustrated by THE Richie Anderson, Beta, is in regard to Barbara Smouse, Theta pledge. It seems he couldn't wait to jum in his car, drive over to the Theta house, and be there in plenty of time to escort Barb to her 8 o'clock in Lincoln Hall..... Marianne Ailts, Gamma Phi, had her De Pauw Phi Psi down for her pledge dance. In the same league, "Mike" Michaelis entertained Boog Johnson, Delta Sig. Boog is a medical student in Chicago this year The Phi Delt's are impatiently awaiting the moment when George Alexander hangs his pledge button on Nan Peerman, petite Pi Phi pledge Marion Hatton, last year's plamor prexy of Delta Gamma, dropped in on the girls last week to tell them that, her love life now being somewhat straightened out, she's planning to blitzkrieg the Wedding March the eighth of November with Tiny Cramer, Delt '40 Phyll Clayton, Gamma Phi, was sadly perturbed when Vic McMayhill, SAE '41, wired from Pittsburgh to tell her that he couldn't come to her pledge dance. Perhaps this fact made her presence with Bob Wallen, Phi Delt, all the more noticeable..... Elmer Blasco, Sig Ep, is getting the razz from the boys for driving four hundred miles for an import for the pledge dance. She was cute Rosemary Katcher. Said Elmer, "It was worth it!" Unquote! Exotic Sue Diesterle, DG, seen 608-ing with Hank Miller, honey-toned WDS announcer..... 'Tis whispered around that Phi Delt Bill Hayman took back his pin because he didn't like the Tri-Delt pledge rules that were restraining attractive Mary Lou Theed.....

It is reported that Howie Dobbs, Sig Ep, has hung his pin on town girl Mary Gaddy.....What smooth man is keeping DG pledge Janie Dunbar's big brown eyes aglow this week?.....Fran Healy, Theta, her pin man, Beta Bob Eagle, Jane Brown, also of the KAT mansion, with pin Johnny Stiefel, SAE, all enjoyed a good party Saturday night..... What's the lowdown on the Don Wiechert-Nancy Thuman story? The popular Gamma Phi has had the Sig Ep pin for two weeks and still refuses to divulge it to her sisters.....Consequently, Don won't pass out cigars..... In spite of the fact that the Delta Gamma hayride was rained out Brad Blount, handsome Phi Delt politician, still felt he could hang his pin on blond Grace DeVries without the aid of hay in his ears. By the way, they make one of the cuter couples on this, our campus
