

DAY - 'TIME

BY BOB DAY

A hearty "Howdy" to the first semester survivors and may they all start the new term with determination to some day graduate from the ol'e institution and some day slap those dirty Japs !

"Red" Cross, Skull casanova, filled with over confidence broke two dates so that he might take Irene Roche, Alpha Xi Delta to the dance tonight. However, much to his consternation found that the lovely one is greatly in love with Bill Sterling, DKE and he will do the courting this evening.....Bob Deffenbaugh, Phi Gam squirrel bait left the AOPi house last night after dating Lorraine Zillner and was singing "A Woman's A Two-Face"..... no doubt the axe had just fallen.....for the new styles in Spring plaids be sure to visit the Heather and browse through the new stock.....Sally Sly, Chi O young lady returned the Delt pin of Roger Derrrough during the course of the week-end.....J.D. Kailer, your Scout Editor has been seen lately at the Kappa house courting Joan Lamb, who has also been go-rather strong with her former pin man Bob Llewellyn, Psi U.....don't forget your Campus Jewelers--Norman-Anderson-- for expert watch repairing.....Phyllis Dolan, Gamma Phi came through with her prediction that she would not be wearing the Sig Nu pin of Dan Dolan this semester when she returned the badge last night.....Skip Carlson, Kappa Sig pledge transferring his dating to the AOPi quarters and giving attractive Rita O'Connor the rush....Saw Jane Knowlton and her pin man Chuck Schott splitting the ten-pins at Johnson's Bowling Alley the other night.....

One of the better romances of the campus found it's way to the steps of matrimony last Saturday night when Miss Virginia Lee Powers was joined in wed-lock with Richard Kerber Reising. They were married in Decatur, Illinois in the First Presbyterian Church. Congratulations and the very best to both of you !

Mr. George Miller, Alpha Delt impression man (?) broke forth with his fourth Theta romance now that he is dating Lois Jane Smith who recently called it quits with her pin man Kirk Kirkpatrick..... Kirk is seemingly unbothered by the return of his badge as he is taking up where the Almighty George left off with Jean Murray of the Theta shack..... Try a bottle of Ye Tavern Beer the next time you party.....Dottie Cameron, Alpha Xi Delta queen is somewhat put-out over her Sig Ep man leaving for the army.....Dean Wessel, Delt Blue Pencil man carrying his affection to the Pi Phi house and Georgia Moon after being dumped out of the Theta league by Barbara Smaus with whom he wooed the night before she took the Pi K A pin of Dick Knowles, a heck of a swell fellow.....Lou Overgard's campus apparel store getting ready for the Spring with many new stlyes on the way from sunny California where Lou himself is now living and running several stores.....Liz Lewis wearing a big smile now that Louis Tuck, Phi Delt of last year, has given her a beautiful diamond ring.....Boots Green, Chi Omega has taken to the project of getting a date with handsome Gene Vance, Beta of basketball fame.....

With the beginning of the new semester you will have Bob Day and Bob Casey giving you the news of the week. Mr. Casey has been in the windy city of Chicago for the past semester and is raring to go and rea ready to scoop the campus.

Bob Day spent the days of finals in the hospital giving way to an attack of measles. Therefore, he was unable to write his usual column fore' he is studying for the dreaded exams he missed. Also, the dating of Ginger Richardson has taken a lot of his time and he just wasn't up to par this week.

Bob Falkenstein, footballer is kinda' that way over Jo Flansburg, Tri-Delt auburn haired attractive young lady....Bobbie Bradley, Pi Phi in the hospital after a date with her Psi U man John Boehm. Bobbie hurt her back as a result of a hard fall and here's hope she is up and around soon.

Warren Malik, SAE, visited Ann Hollis in Joliet during mid-semesters. Ann will not enroll in the University this term.....Lou Hodge's 608 radio program will not be heard at 8:30pm as rumored around the local spots. The broadcast will take place at the usual time 9:30pm Tuesday night with the Psi U men taking over. Chuck Huwen, the Psi U sparkplug and pin man of Mickey Small, Kappa, will be interviewed by master of ceremonies Bob Blum.....Ginny Eilert, Chi O blonde one became rather frustrated during registration by the hole in her sock...several of her sorority sister had to escort her through the Library corridors to make sure she registered safely.

The Adventures of SLIM 'n JIM

MAN of the Week

by
CHET GRAY

This week we walk no farther than across the street to the SAE Fraternity to find our Man of the Week, Roy Brown. He is one of the extremely prominent gentlemen who attained the ranks of the '42 class. He is enrolled in the Commerce School.

A citizen of Streator, Roy has made an excellent record as an Illini as well as a fraternity man. This semester finds him as the Vice Prexy of SAE as well as holding down the managership of Ed Manley's swim ming team. Earlier honors won as an Illini include membership in Blue Pencil, Band of X, Skull and Crescent, Emrac, and Marketing Club.

ROY BROWN

Along with all these time-taking activities Roy has been able to maintain a 4.2 All-University average. (And here I can't even get a 3.2, it just isn't fair) But, all the luck in the world Roy keep up the good work. The Army needs men like you.

Brownie is one of the boys who will have to register this Feb. 16, for admission in the fighting forces of old Uncle Sam. When asked what his plans were after that Roy said he would just have to wait and see.

Roy is the anchor man on the SAE beer drinking team and they offer to challenge any house on this campus. With the women Brownie has a good time dating all the lovelies, "loving them all" rather than any one. Not a bad idea. He also believes that corsages should be banned at dances. The girls are O. K. but he hates to ask for a date a couple of weeks in advance.

So until next week at this time we say "Hats off to a swell fellow and to an All-around good boy in Illini activities. So get those seven weeks of school in before the army gets ya gang, and has Brownie said "it looks like it's going to be a great picnic season."

WOMAN of the Week

by RUTH MEYER

"Willy" Cohen, the gal who loves seamless hose because they eliminate the perpetual task of keeping seams straight, hails from Clinton, Ill., home of Gene Vance, Beta basketball heart throb.

Now junior advertising woman's manager of the Illio, "Willy" transferred from Stevens college a year ago last fall. She much prefers the coeducational atmosphere and democratic spirit of Illinois to living in the impersonal environment of a two-hundred girl dormitory.

"Willy's" home in Clinton, a bustling metropolis of 6,000 people, serves as an open house where she plays gracious hostess during vacations to her A. E. Phi sisters. Between semester "Willy" entertained seven of them, the year before she had five guests. A few more trips and Mr. Cohen will have to rent the local hotel, if Clinton has one.

A Wisconsin man, now stationed at Abott Hall, is the attraction that beckons "Willy" to Chicago every full moon. During a recent whirlwind week-end, she spent five minutes at a burlesque show, and the rest at night clubs. The high spot of her visit was a cherrydrink called Cherry Jubilee, islands of ice cream in a bowl of flaming rum.

Plain-tailored suits, an off-shade of pale blue, and spectator pumps are her wardrobe stand-bys. Gin Rummy is her favorite time-waster. The first on her list of writers is Sinclair Lewis, because he writes about small towns. Jimmy Stewart's recent abdication of Hollywood for the duration and consequent absence from the screen saddened "Willy", for he is by far her A--1 movie actor.

Summer school sessions have filled "Willy's" vacation schedule up to date. However, she and a few of her pals (sorority sisters) have hopeful dreams of renting an apartment in Chicago next summer and a job in the Loop. "Willy", a major in sociology, which she will have finished by the end of this semester, will angle for a temporary Civil Service post that will give her the necessary practical experience for her career in social work. No matter whether she decides to live her own life or assume others' troubles, she'll always be one swell gal.

MORE OR LESS

Certainly glad to see the finest basketball team in the country stay eligible and thereby spread the good name of the University through-out the 48 States. For this team to have been broken up by ineligibility would have been very detrimental to the Illini spirit that hasn't been too easy to cultivate. Let's back the Doug Mill's quintet all the way to a Big Ten championship! The addition of Hank Sachs to the squad is a great help and an answer to one of Doug's prayers.....

Pictured at the left is some of the gang enjoying themselves at one of the party-ing spots..... Ernie Kowal, Sigma Phi Epsilon lad gave Miss Dotty Smith his pin this past week-end. Dotty is an Alpha Xi Delta.....just try a juicy Twenty Taylor Steak the next time you eat out..... you'll it!Chet Gray back in the institution and all set for those big Spring picnicswho takes the place of last year's blanket warmer, Chet
