

Day-Time... BY BOB DAY

(Les Frailey Pinch Hitting)

The Women's League Show was acclaimed one of the best productions in a long time.....so read the critic's viewpoints concerning the show last year. However, it was evident that the clowning of Shirley Hopp and Charlie Caudle spoiled the audience for this year's performance...many of them leaving between scenes. If the good work of Betty Hanisee and Richie Anderson hadn't saved the day no doubt the auditorium would have resembled the stadium in the middle of December.

O.K. Illini -- here's your chance to redeem yourself for the poor turn out at the pep rally before the basketball aggregation departed for Chicago Friday afternoon -- Tuesday morning at eleven-fifty the 1942 Big Ten Champions will arrive at the station and it is our duty to show that there still is a spark of "true Illini spirit" remaining at our Alma Mater. Let's have a tremendous turn-out waiting for them to step off the train with the crown tucked under their belts. Show Doug Mills and his boys that we really appreciate the accomplishment by yelling like all h... and giving them a royal reception. Remember... it's a date 11:50 Tuesday morn' at the station.

Cuttin' in "Ruby lips" Bob Casey met Jean Davidson's knee in the Chi Omega house the night before. "Case" cut his lip on the route home from the depot.....Ann Middleton, Theta possessor of Ed Busby's DKE pin and a diamond ring is having a great time dating a certain one soldier boy from Rantoul by the name of Frank Alaifia.....Dick Boynton, SAE suitor of Jess Sudbrink, Pi-foo, in town to see his heart throb who entertained Ken Cole, Indee before the Women's League Show at the Pi Phi dinner. Bill Giachetto, Delt woo hunter has also been visiting Jess rather frequently and he has been seen in the AOPi parlors with Ann Peterson.....Don't forget to get baby a new outfit by voting for One of the Ten Best Dressed Girls at the Heather.....Billy Tuttle, AOPi and Phil Mason make a devoted couple.....Jean O'Connor, Alpha Phi took the crested ring of Al Otte, Theta Delta Chi over the week end Chief Illiniwek put on the war paint and dance for the Rantoul draftees and the USO hostesses Sunday night.....Lee Bloemker, DU claims to have lost his pin while in the presence of Arleens Green, Alpha GamSaw several of the BMOC's at Cal Shull's Midway after the Wisconsin game and they were havin' a superb time.....Funeral bells tolled last week for Bob Burton, Skull and Tri-Delt Kay Younger, a couple that had been goin' strong for three long years.....Kay has been dating a smooth lad by the name of Lenn Telford, Sig Ep since Bob's exit.....The Pi Phi's revolted when Liz Brearley wanted to bathe a Phi Gam in the second floor shower. However, the subject for a washing turned out to be only Obo, the Phi Gam great-dane.....oh! for a dogs life!.....Bidwell's Better Candies !.....

Blue Monday finds considerably more people "groggier" than usual, as some five hundred people traveled to the "windy city" for the week-end. A large part of them cheered the Illini Five to a great victory.

Congratulations to Frankie Bush, KKG and Jack Thompson ES who will celebrate their second anniversary this coming Tuesday--really a great couple.....We're wondering what Mildred Roberts, ZTA cutie, attractions were at Purdue this week-end..... For a good time all the time try Bunny's in Urbana. Top honors for the dirty trick of the week go to Norma Adams, Alpha Xi scholar, who waited until former pin man and SDX prexy Ed Rohn was no longer chairman of the Headliner's Hcp before she broke date to the same. Then Norma succeeded in talking Sister Ruth Thompson into breaking her date for same dance with Ed's roommate, Don Zeller..... Drink Ye Tavern Brew--the drink of millions Louise Vlasak, Sager House pep girl, who did a swell job as solo dancer in the Woman's League, is accompanying Ken denke, flashy BMOC, to the Headliner's Hop.....How about that Carol??? The past week-end finds Virginia Frances, Indee, sporting the DKE pin of John McDonald..... Dave Miller took time off from Una's Sam long enough to seal his Alpha Ci romance with Nancy Nicoll with a ring..... Bresee Cleaners -- always the dependable.... Call 4444 Earl White, Indee, tied up the affections of Jean Miller, Delta Gam, as they are now going steady..... Try Twenty Taylor Steaks.

MAN of the Week

by
CHET GRAY

Every once in a while we come across a man that towers so far above the others that there is no other choice but to make him Man of the Week, and that person is no other than Doug Mills, Coach of the best darn basketball team in the whole country.

This team composed mainly of Andy Phillip, Gene Vance, Jack Smiley, Ken Menke, Vic Wukovitz, and

DOUGLAS R. MILLS
Coach

Art Mathiesen Has proved it self by bowling over the best competition in the middle-West. And that my loyal Illini is the best competition in the country.

Doug came to Illinois in the year 1937 and right of the bat gave us a championship team which had on it such notables as Pick Dehner and Lou Boudreau, and when any coach can come to the Big Ten and in his first year give us a Championship team he is one in a million. Which is just what we think of Doug Mills -- he's one in a million and we're darn proud and fortunate to have him as our Coach.

This last Sat. night Doug gave us our first undisputed championship since 1915 and before a record throng of 18,931, which by the way is the largest crowd to ever watch collegiate basketball. They won the game you no doubt know by the best scoring spree the Illini have shown this season 63 - 49.

In the last athletic shak-up Doug was named Athletic Director with the hardy approval of all the Illini. He has been the main reason why Illinois has been getting its share of the best talent in the Mid-West.

Doug is the one man who has had the entire student body behind him all the way through and he is the man who can put the athletic standing of Illinois right back where it belongs -- on top.

The big question at this time is weather he is going to take his Big-Ten Champions to the all important NCAA meet, to be played off very shortly. But, no one knows, and we are all waiting for Doug to give us the final word.

WOMAN of the Week

by RUTH MEYER

Betty Hanisee, Delta Gamma's blitzkrieg dynamo of comedy, walked off the stage set of "No, No, Nanette", Saturday night with the applause for another excellent "screwball" performance, ringing in her ears. As "Pay-Day Pauline", a mercenary maid and seashore addict, Betty stole the show.

Betty, a native of Winnetka, Illinois, spends her summers traveling and training with the David Bradley Productions, a touring amateur motion picture company. The troupe, composed of talent from Wisconsin and Illinois, spends three months making a film and then culminates the season by having a regular premier. Last August they presented "Peer Gynt" at the Winnetka Community House and donated the proceeds to the U.S.O. The profits of a summer's labor, some patriotism!

When a freshman, "Hanny" played in "Murder In The Cathedral". Her sophomore year she was given the part of "Clotilde", a comedy lead in "Black Flamingo". The Minstrel Show, "The Trial of Peg Fairfax", and Woman's League's white elephant, "No, No, Nanette", are among her dramatic accomplishments. Betty is casted for a role in "Let's Get Away", to be shown soon under the auspices of Men's League.

Last year Bob Blum, Theta Delta Chi radio wizard, was Betty's pin man, however this year variety seems to be the spice of life. S.A.E. Scott Kelly, who was on the scene when Betty accepted Bob's pin, has returned to the campus for a short visit. Another friend of Betty's back for a month's tour of the local hangouts is Joe Clarno, Psi U. Rich Anderson, the other star of "No, No, Nanette", has also been Delta-Gam-calling for Betty. Her correspondence extends to the S.A.E. house at the University of Wisconsin and to a certain D.K.E. in Chicago.

Petite, blonde, a comedienne a la deluxe, Betty Hanisee is the rightful heiress to the throne of hilarity recently vacated by Shirley Hopp.

MORE OR Less...

Following is the list which we have compiled, hoping to present the remaining sororities next week. The first column signifies the number of girls in the chapter, next comes the list of pins, then the girls who are keeping steady company, and, lastly, the number of girls having a diamond ring

As you can readily see the Gamma Phis wear the crown symbolizing "quantity". The Delta Gams and Gamma Phis have been contesting a close race for this top-notch position for the past two years. However, if based on a per-centage basis, the Thetas would rightfully be possessor of the crown.

Still cuttin' inEdith Dyer, Tri-Delt goin' steady with "lover" Bob Kiester, Alpha Chi RhoGinny Kautz and Jim Littlejohn, Alpha Gam and Phi Psi, went home last Wednesday and hadn't returned Sunday night as Illinois-Life went to press.....
