

Day-Time... BY BOB DAY

Campus Miracle.....how J.D.Kailer can roam the campus without the town dog-catchers nabbing the shaggy haired mongrelnothing would have given the publisher more pleasure than to have been the one to toss the banana at the lad during his few seconds on the radio program.....no doubt the tosser mistook J.D. for one of our ancestors who thrived on bananas and coconuts.

Our friend and fraternity brother, Frank T. Page, Jr., publisher and editor of ILLINOIS-LIFE last year, has managed to successfully pass the physical exam for the army air corps division and is waiting for orders any day now. No doubt the army officials had the foresight to see the value in Frank's shining cranium as a possible airport beacon.....

Going on about townIt finally came trueWarren Malik, SAE fencer and smooth lad, hung his pin on Gamma Phi's queen, Betty Markert.....Maggie Richards, Theta, also came through with a pin this week when Gus Banthian, Deke architect, offered his badge to her.....Louis Tuck dropped in town to see Mrs. Tuck to-be, Liz Lewis, Pi PhiAl Lundahl, Phi Gam man and Man About Town, went stag to the bowery dance and remained true to Pat Schmitt, Alpha Chi pledge, who was ill at the timePat Gagan, Chi Omega's bundle of attractiveness, found that dating with Bob Koehnemann, Delta Upsilon, was a wee-bit rough and has called it quits.....step in Roland Russell!.....

Mickey Small, Kappa, and her pin man, Chuck Huwen, Psi U, spent the week-end in Chicago where Chuck took his physical for the army.....Alpha Chi's beauty, Carol Ege, was back in town for a short stay.....Drop down to Lou Hodge's 608 Club for Billiards and a beer.....it's the campus hot-spot.....Jane Knowlton and Chuck Schott devotedly spending all of their spare time together.....Dorothy Ann Joost, Alpha Chi sophomore accepted the pin of SAE Wilbur MacDaniel....congratulations folk!.....Kenny Holten drove over from Danville to be with Phyl Mount, Chi O.....Ginny Kautz, Alpha Gam, went to Jim Littlejohn's home for the holidays.....The Kappa Deltas had a black-out dance Saturday night.....Nancy Pearman, PiPhi, and Phi Delt Jack Berger are setting a wicked pace although Man has a love in St. Louis.....Basketballer Jack Smiley, SAE making sure that Jean Duncan is getting around the campus....Jean is a transfer from Beloit and waves the Pi Phi flag.....Dick Knowles, PiKA, and Barb Smaus, Theta will find the going rather tough when she drops out of school in one week or so....and all those big picnics are just around the corner, Dick!.....Marion Hall, Alpha Gam off-the-wagon-girl, took in the night spots Saturday night with Chi Phi Donnie Walker.....Johnnie Sawyer, Deke, and Mary Jean Geyer, Theta, celebrated their two year anniversary in the company of Jane Brown and Johnnie Stiefel, who were whooping it up for a one year romance.....

BULL ^{from} BUD

The past week-end has been full of good old fashioned barn dances and plenty of parties so lets dig in the hay.....At the Sigma Delta Tau house, the girls are still looking for the individual who put a rabbit in their dorm at 4 A.M. this morning.....Don't worry girls anyone playing with a rabbit at that hour couldn't be too harmful..... Congratulations to Mary Sue McConnell Alpha Xi Delta cutie, and Bill Wood Acacia flash, on their second anniversary in the pin world..... Louise McIntire Kappa Delt, had her favorite visitor in her pin man Ed Mandeck, Wabash Delt....Dotty Cutler Alpha Phi lovey dove, is now the proud possessor of Bob Hunt's Sigma Chi Pin... Mary Burlison, Alpha Phi, returned the Delt Pin of Larry Hannah..... Joe Greenwood, Skull, pulled a quicky when he received his pin Thursday nite and hung it Saturday on Jane Bickel, kappa lovely..... Get your tickets for the Men's League Show... Formal Friday- Informal Saturday.....

Bob Lee, Psi U wolf, took marvelous care of his fraternity brother's pin girl Barb Pogue, Theta queen..... J.D. Kailer, local chatterbox, was cut to the bone when Jo Flansburg ex high school love, took the Kappa Sig pin of Bob Falkenstein..... Remember Bidwell's Better Candies.

MAN of the Week

by

CHET GRAY

This week for our Man of the week we travel to the Phi Gam house to interview that good looking guy with the pleasing personalityAl Lundahl.

(Pause while Al thinks a bit)

"Well, Chet, to begin with I come from a small town a little ways from here called Paxton. Its not much of a town but it's home and thats all that matters to me.

Mr: Tell me Al what are some of the activities that you have messed around in while you have been on the ol' Campus.

AL AGAIN

"Lets see, I'm on the Junior Cabinet of the Men's League and by the way we're having a show the 27th and 28th of this month. I'm President of Sacham, which is something I'll always be proud of. Then this past year I was Homecoming Chairman. Of course I mess around a bit and so I was initiated into the Band of X"

ME AGAIN: That's swell Al you've really gone places in the three years you've been here. But, tell me what do you think of the women situation on this campus.

AL AGAIN: Well, last summer I went out to U.C.L.A. where the beauties are supposed to be all over the place but I think that the women at Illinois will give them a close race any day in the week. And, by the way I have my pin on Pat Schmitt, an Alpha Chi pledge"

ME AGAIN: It's good to hear someone say that for a change Al. So now just one more question and I'll let you go. Just what are you're plans after graduation?

AL: "What a question, if I only knew. But, right now I'm in V-7 and with a few IP's - AND'S and MAYBE's after I get out of here I plan to go in to the selling game, but, you never can tell what will happen between now and then."

WOMAN of the Week

by

RUTH MEYER

Betty Markert, Gamma Phi Beta, climaxed a romance of a year and a week with Warren Malik, S. A. E., by accepting his pin Saturday night.

Betty, an activity gal plus, has a string of achievements as long as the Panama Canal; Freshmen Council, Alpha Lambda Delta, Shi-Ai, Torch, Sophomore Cotillion Queen, Sophomore Council of Woman's League, a Sophomore Member of Student Alumni Association, Panhellenic Court of Appeals, Junior Council of Woman's League-- etc., etc., etc.,

An ardent fan of automobile travel, Betty has driven as far north as Gaspe Peninsula in the Hudson Bay region of Canada, and as far south as Florida and Key West. Last June Betty was a guest at Annapolis during the famous June Week. Although Easterners are "always know what to do at the right time" hosts, Betty prefers the open friendly hospitality of the Western plains.

Having taken practically every course offered in writing by the University, Betty plans to make fiction and feature articles in the magazine field her career. Like her sister, June Markert, Gamma Phi graduate of last year, now working for Alco-Gravure Publication Company in Chicago, she hopes to see her name in magazine bylines.

Efficient to the nth degree, Betty spent six weeks of last summer working in an office, typing away through the afternoon heat. A glutton for punishment, she plans to go on the payroll again this June.

Besides swimming and writing, Betty enjoys meeting people and increasing her ever-growing circle of friends. Consequently, hers will be the smiling face that will greet the bewildered rush-ees at the Gamma Phi house next fall. A genuine blond to boot, Betty is a charter member of the school of naturals.
