Dear Sam and Cherie,

Barbara and I deeply appreciate your invitation for the Texas A&M game. I find that I'm trapped on that Saturday on an OPS project so we are forced to regret.

To be perfectly frank, Barbara is looking forward to our next assignment, then perhaps we can again lead a more normal life.

Barb will pass Cherie's note to the Beckers and I'm sure Fran will let you know their plans.

Again, many thanks for your kind invitation--we are looking forward to seeing you on some other occasion.

Most sincerely,

Dear Dick and Barbara:

I wish to thank you for the fine evening last Monday night. Enjoyed seeing Harry Kinnard and others.

I also wish to confirm the invitation for the Texas A&M game if you will be able to accompany the Beckers, who plan to be in attendance. We will be able to accommodate you, one way or another, for Friday and Saturday nights. If business is so pressing that you have to come up on Saturday, I suggest you arrive in plenty of time for the parade which takes place at 1115 hours.

Cherie joins me in sending our best.

Sincerely,
