Dear Maj. General Knowles

In reference to your letter dated September 18, 1969, I wish to thank you for your prompt reply to my letter. It really cleared up the situation as you see it in Vietnam.

I feel very foolish. When my husband returned I asked him about the rubber plantations. As it turns out, I completely misunderstood him. I wish to thank you again for your prompt reply & please forgive me for a waste of your valuable time.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Stephen K. Thorp
