

30 September 1969

Dear General Underwood:

The kind invitation from the Pikes Peak Chapter to join them for cocktails has been received and we have accepted with pleasure.

It was most thoughtful of you to personally reinforce their invitation. As you know, my schedule is dependent upon the Joint calendar; consequently, I may not be able to spend as much time participating as I would like.

Rest assured that no matter what the schedule is we will get together.

Most sincerely,

Dear Dick and Barbara:

By now you have received an invitation to attend a cocktail party sponsored by the Pikes Peak Chapter of AUSA at the Lincoln Room (West) of the Washington Hilton Hotel from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening, 14 October.

I know you will receive many such invitations but hope you can accept this one, particularly since the civilian leaders of the Pikes Peak Chapter have supported the Army to the hilt for many years. Typical of their efforts to help the Army was a recent testimonial dinner honoring combat veterans of Vietnam, which won a special AUSA award for the best single event in support of AUSA objectives during 1969.

Your appearance, no matter how briefly, would give real encouragement for a championship group of Army boosters.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
