Dear Hal:

Many thanks for the ribbons. The Koreans did a first-class job, and I'll wear them with pride.

Your presence here is missed, and we will be happy to welcome you back--especially if you can manage to snare a loose division in the course of your tour in the exotic Orient.

I am inclosing my check for $10.00 with most sincere thanks for all of your effort.

Warm regards,

Dear General Knowles —

Here are your ribbons. No problem. Happy to help.

Can't help but wonder about your status. I figure a Corps command job with the 3 stars to go with it.

All best,
Hal

Dear General Moore:

The ribbons and wings arrived today. General Knowles is delighted with them and is most appreciative of your help in getting them for him.

You will note that there is only one small fix necessary. The Unit Award of the Gallantry Cross should have only one bronze palm. I am sorry that I was unable to give you a correct xerox but I didn't have the correct ribbons to start with; hence the written lists.

My days are numbered now. I plan to go on leave on the 24th and will be in country 18 November. Hopefully, there is still a battalion for me in the 4th.

My belated congratulations to you on your nomination to major general. We never doubted it. I imagine that we'll see you in Vietnam some time next year as a division commander.

Many thanks for your help in this transaction and also while you were here in OPS.

Most sincerely,
