Dear Art:

Many thanks for the correspondence on General Brownfield. The letter does not leave much to the imagination, and does, as you indicated, speak for itself.

Business in the Pentagon, and especially in OPS has not changed at all since you left--which might explain why I will probably not be taking any time off to come to New York in the immediate future. The idea is a pleasant one indeed, and I deeply appreciate the invitation.

My very best to Peggy--both Barbara and I will look forward to seeing you again.

Most sincerely,

Dear General Knowles:

Attached is correspondence pertaining to
Gen. Brownfield's application for employment at the U.N. The letter speaks for itself.

I imagine you continue to be quite busy in the Pentagon. When are you going to take some time off and come to New York?

Regards,

Dear Miss Vujnovich,

Thank you for sending me ^{the} papers on General Albert Ray Brownfield. Unfortunately, I do not see at this time any way in which we can consider an American of Mr. Brownfield's age and rank for the Administrative Management Service staff. While we do have one vacancy, we are looking for a P-3 or a P-4 who has had appropriate O & M experience.

The personal history form which you forwarded with your letter of 9 October is returned herewith.

Yours sincerely,

Robert J. Ryan
Director
