Dear Dick,

Thank you for your thoughtful letter of congratulations. It was good to hear from you.

Billie and I are hitting the ground occasionally these days, and when we do we wonder where we will be going from here. She really doesn't care so long as we go. Of course, I am not exactly in a position to complain at the moment.

Embarrassingly late, let me congratulate you on your star. I am sure we have not seen the last of AWC '59 on the star lists. As a matter of fact, I expect to see your name up for a second star before too long.

Sincerely,

Jerry

Dear Jerry,

Congratulations on your nomination for promotion to Brigadier General.

Barb and I were delighted when we saw your name on the list. It reconfirmed our faith in the system. We trust that your new assignment will be to your liking. Our War College class has been doing pretty well so far, and I expect more to follow.

Again, congratulations, and best wishes to you and your family for continued success and happiness.

Sincerely,

RICHARD T. KNOWLES
