Dear Dick:

Many thanks for your nice letter of congratulations on my recent selection. Enjoyed seeing you at Benning during the dedication of the school and appreciated your personal congrats at that time.

Six weeks have passed since the announcement and I still have no knowledge of what my next assignment will be. Am hoping that it won't be much longer and, as you can imagine, I'm sweating out the good word - or bad.

We in OACSFOR are following closely your good work in the 11th Air Assault. Things are looking better all the time. Best wishes for your continued success.

Again, thanks for your very kind letter.

Sincerely,

Lloyd B. Ramsey

Dear Dave:

Again, congratulations. I was delighted to read about your selection in the Journal. The latest list confirmed once again my confidence in the system.

I know what a thrill the news must have been and hope that your new assignment will be to your liking.

Barb joins me in sending our best wishes to you and your family.

Sincerely yours,

RICHARD T. KNOWLES
Asst Div Commander (A)
11th Air Assault Division
