

18 August 1964

Dear General Rich:

Barbara and I would like to extend our warmest congratulations to you and Mrs. Rich on your recent promotion to Lieutenant General. We would also like to tell you how sorry we are that we were unable to attend the celebration on Sunday, 9 August 1964. Unfortunately, we had a previous commitment which we could not, in clear conscience, break. I assure you, however, that we were there in spirit.

Things continue to hum along at Fort Benning at a rapid pace. Consequently, even though I am now permitted to park my car near the golf shop and to play without a reservation, I'm hard pressed to find the time to capitalize fully on these privileges.

Barbara joins me in sending you and Mrs. Rich our very best wishes for continued success and happiness.

Sincerely,

RICHARD T. KNOWLES
