Dear Dick,

Our warmest thanks for the note of congratulations and the kind words therein. Needless to say, we hate to leave the Division and the duty in Europe.

I'm sure the new job will have no dull moments, and probably little time for such things as PT.

Again, many thanks and the best of luck to you.

Sincerely,

B. E. SPIVY

Dear General Spivy:

Heartiest congratulations on your nomination for promotion to the rank of Lieutenant General.

Lee Kaufman and I have frequently discussed your numerous contributions to the improvement of our Army, and we were both delighted to hear the news. Your new assignment sounds like a major challenge. I trust that you will find it to your liking.

Again, congratulations, and best wishes to you and your family.

Sincerely,

RICHARD T. KNOWLES
