Dear Dick -

many thanks for your thoughtful and generous note. Delighted as I am by the nomination, I am even more delighted by the good wishes of good friends.

I note from the postmark on your fine letter it was written in the field, as this is - I'm getting a goodbye

present of some good old

Oahu rain and red mud before proceeding to Fort Polk.

With warm regards,

Yours,

Walt

Dear Dick -

The news of your nomination for promotion is good news indeed, and I wish to offer my heartiest congratulations. I hope the future brings you continued success and that if promotion brings a change in assignment it is to your liking.

Dear Walt:

You were very thoughtful to send a congratulatory note -- thank you very much.

The nomination was like a bolt out of the blue, but I don't intend to turn it down. I've been assigned as one of the assistant division commanders and this news was almost as exciting as the first.

If you have the opportunity to visit Fort Benning, be sure to look us up. In the meantime, Barb joins me in sending you and your family our best wishes.

Sincerely,

RICHARD T. KNOWLES
