Re: POW/MIA Committee - Dr. Kissinger --- TODAY

Dear Senator Robb:

I have written to Ted Koppel and copied Senator Kerry about an August broadcast of NITELINE in which Dr. Kissinger and Senator Kerry appeared.

Dr. Kissinger tried to berate Koppel for having him appear following the evening news which portrayed American officials as having knowledge that living American prisoners were left behind. Dr. Kissinger prevailed and he was able to get both Ted Koppel and Senator Kerry to almost apologize before asking him questions. I was so mad, I wrote.

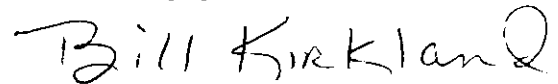

Today, when you have Dr. Kissinger before you, please remember that you are a Vietnam Veteran and not one, who like Senator Kerry, was involved with Veterans Against the War!! ASK Dr. Kissinger the hard questions. Don't take any stuff from this pompous overblown intellectual liar.

Dr. Kissinger has to know of the secret Nixon offer of $3.5 billion in reparations to the North Vietnamese. He knew when they gave him their list of our POWs that there were many men's names missing. He said nothing when Nixon announced that all our POWs were home. How can he live with the knowledge that Nixon was lying, Reagan and Bush have been lying and Ford and Carter were kept in the dark? He was the messenger for Nixon!

Win one today for us - Vietnam veterans from throughout the country. I, for one, continue my full support for you in Virginia.

Sincerely yours,
