Litany of Remembering

Liturgist: Mighty and Everlasting God, tonight we remember our absent comrades! Their eyes are burned into our hearts, their names echo in our ears. We honor their sacrifices for this nation and her people. We remember our debt to them.

People: Mighty Creator, our comrades served this land with the strength of their youth; they gave up their future so that others could walk in freedom's light; they liberated others whose names were unknown

We remember those who have not returned, who remain unaccounted for!

Liturgist: Everlasting God, on this night when we remember the fire of battles, we remember those still held captive. We grieve over their absence. Strengthen their families, bless their children, encourage all who work for a full accounting. We ask Your blessing upon those deployed in harm's way!

Scripture - Matthew 5:3-11 Rev. Donald Denton
