Agent Reporter:

When the VCs attack US installations they gather all chemical equipment possible. VC stressing use of chemical agents in attacks. Report VC in hills west of Bronco training with AB-40 rocket round, like our CS grenade.

VC are to go all out to shoot down US helicopters as it is a tremendous morale booster.

Local force VC along Highway #1 are to step up sniper attacks and booby trapping to take up slack as larger NV Main Force units move to Laos.

Traps across the trails in the NO H3 area are booby trapped.

Recent reports that there is definite vehicular traffic on the Ho Chi Minh trail. Approximately 50,000 NVA soldiers have been transported by vehicle along that route.

Order of battle reports 60 NVA Bns in the I Corps area.

In a document captured 18 Apr 68 dated 6 Apr 68 is stated:

There will be a three phased attack against the U.S. forces.

Phase I - Set up resupply points around the battle area to include command and medical stations. To be accomplished by 1 May 68.

Phase II - Attack all major U.S. installations from Binh Dinh to the DMZ simultaneously.

Phase III - An all out offensive in order to make the US give in to North Vietnam's conditions during peace talks. Three days prior to the all out offensive all modes of transportation open to the US installations will be blocked. All highways will be heavily mined, all airstrips will be mortared and rocketed heavily and simultaneously throughout Vietnam.

4-3:

4-1 Inf - Normal operations

4-21 Inf - Conduct essential training.

4-3: No rail.

COL Henderson: Too many MP reports of lost weapons by carelessness. COL Henderson will hold the individuals liable for the weapons plus consideration for a court martial.
