

B52s Blast Area Where Chopper Was Downed

The wreckage of a U.S. Army helicopter sits in a rice paddy in the Que Son Valley, 30 miles southwest of Da Nang, while exploding bombs of a B52 strike raise clouds of dust and smoke over 1,000 yards away. Since just after the first of the year, units of the Americal Div. have been battling North Vietnamese troops in the wide valley. (AP Radiophoto)

Bowles Will Stick to Sanctuary Issue

NEW DELHI (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Chester Bowles and a

"We hope the talks will strengthen prospects for peace in Vietnam," the official said his second call in 18 hours on T.N. Kaul, foreign secretary and former ambassador to Rus-men for such patrol duties. India is commission chairman. Bowles is flying commercially
