b. Operation DRAGON PALACE III	1-16 September 1968
c. Operation LANCASTER II	3-12 September 1968
d. Operation VICTORY DRAGON III	7-30 September 1968
e. Operation SCOTLAND II	1 September 1968
f. Operation HOUSTON	8 September 1968

2. General Summary

a. Marine Aircraft Group 16 helicopters and fixed wing supported Army, Navy, ROKMC and USMC units throughout the ICTZ during the month.

b. HMM-164 continued to augment the normal medevac package and worked in support of Operations MAMELUKE THRUST and DRAGON PALACE III.

c. VMO-2 OV-10A aircraft were flown extensively throughout the month and logged 1332.4 hours.

d. During the month of September 1968, VMO-2 and HML-167 UH-1E gunships continued to support MAG-16 Cargo/Transport helicopters on various escort missions. UH-1E aircraft also provided "Fire-Fly" missions, Airborne Personnel Detector (APD) and Visual Reconnaissance missions.

e. The HMH-463 CH-53A "Heavy Haulers" continued troop/cargo movement throughout the I Corps area during the month. In addition, CH-53As transported 13 aircraft on field and administrative lifts for a total of 51.1 tons.

f. On 5 September 1968, HMM-362 arrived at Marble Mountain Air Facility from the USS Princeton. While operating from MMAF, HMM-362 conducted normal operations in support of Operations MAMELUKE THRUST and DRAGON PALACE III as well as providing medevac and command and control support directly to the 1st, 5th, 7th, 11th and 26th Marine Regiments and the 2nd ROK Marine Brigade.

3. Chronological Summary

In the following chronological summary, emphasis is placed on the activities of MAG-16's transport helicopters.

~~SECRET~~

MAG-16's UH-1E helicopters were used extensively throughout the Quang Nam province of RVN. A variety of missions were flown including; medical evacuation, medevac escort, recon inserts and extracts, re-supply escort, VIP flights, APD missions, visual reconnaissance missions, and "Fire-Fly" searchlight missions. VMO-2 and HML-167 continued to be closely associated in almost all operational commitments. Pilots from each squadron flew UH-1E gunships belonging to the other squadron due to a continued shortage of qualified UH-1E pilots. HML-167 continued to fly all UH-1E "slick" missions.

HML-167 averaged 41.1 hours and 113 sorties daily while VMO-2, less OV-10A's, flew 38.0 hours and 77 sorties each day. The OV-10A's flew 18 sorties and 44.4 hours daily, an increase of 6 hours over the daily flight time average during the month of August.

1 September - OV-10A's from VMO-2 were flown for 30.2 hours, while they directed 12 flights of fixed wing on assigned targets. The UH-1E "Huey" gunships of VMO-2 flew 32.0 hours, 4.5 hours of which were logged on an APD mission. HML-167's UH-1Es logged 30.3 hours of which 6.5 hours were logged on reconnaissance missions. HMM-265, in CH-46's, flew 44.0 hours and received small arms fire on numerous occasions while they worked in support of Operation MAMELUKE THRUST. Forty-two and one tenth flight hours were logged by pilots from HMM-164. Small arms and 50 caliber fire were received throughout the day, while 166 troops/passengers and 9.6 tons of cargo were moved. HMM-463's CH-53A's logged only 13.4 hours due to poor availability. Operation SCOTLAND II was supported. A total of 147 troops and 40.6 tons of cargo were transported. Major C. W. GOBAT and Lt C. L. BURKHART in a H&MS-16 CH-53A, WW-4, were taken under intense and accurate 50 caliber fire and received approximately 30 hits in the vicinity of Liberty Bridge. The aircraft was landed safely in a secure zone at Liberty Bridge, repairs were made and the aircraft was flown back to MMAF on 2 September.

2 September - HMM-164 flew 46.6 hours and carried 474 troops/passengers and lifted 41.7 tons of cargo. Small arms fire was received at coordinates BT 092653 which resulted in 4 hits and no injuries. CH-53A's from HMM-463 logged 18.6 hours and transported 92 troops, 20 NVA PW's and 107.1 tons of cargo. The only operation supported by HMM-463 was the ROKMC's Operation DRAGON PALACE III. The pilots of HMM-265 flew 43.0 hours while they lifted 22.7 tons of cargo and 354 troops/passengers. HMM-265 crews and aircraft supported Operation MAMELUKE THRUST. HML-167 flight crews logged 36.8 hours of which 7.3 hours were flown on visual reconnaissance missions. They also carried 73 passengers. The UH-1E's from VMO-2 logged 29.6 hours which included 2.1 hours on an APD mission for the First Marine Division. Small arms fire was received and returned at AT 847547. The OV-10A's were flown for 45.1 hours in support of the First and Third Marine Divisions. OV-10 crews directed 22 flights of fixed wing and two artillery missions against enemy targets.

3 September 1968 - HMM-362 flew 36.9 hours and carried 10 passengers, .9 ton of cargo and 61 medevacs. This was the squadron's first day of operations as a tenant squadron at Marble Mountain Air Facility. All UH-34 missions assigned were completed. Most of the flight time was in support of Operation LANCASTER II for the Third Marine Division. HMM-265 supported the First Marine Division with 34 hours while they lifted 23.4 tons and carried 206 troops/passengers. Small arms fire resulted in minor battle damage to squadron aircraft while they were operating in support of Operation MAMELUKE THRUST. The CH-46's of HMM-164 logged 46.2 hours and carried 606 troops/passengers and 39.9 tons of cargo. VMO-2 "Huey's" were flown for 77.8 hours which included 5.3 hours on two APD missions while reconnaissance insertions and extractions accounted for another 10.8 hours. While supporting the Fifth Marines in the vicinity of An Hoa, enemy fire was received at coordinates AT 858519, AT 863509, AT 855547, AT 839546 and AT 868516. HML-167 "Hueys" logged 34.9 hours during which 96 passengers were transported. Area visual reconnaissance missions accounted for 3.7 hours while a short APD mission accounted for 1.4 hours. The APD mission aircraft received fire at coordinates AT 823684. The OV-10A "Broncos" logged 38.6 hours while their aircrews directed 18 air strikes. Visual reconnaissance missions composed the majority of the OV-10A's assigned tasks.

4 September - "Hueys" from HML-167 were flown for 16.9 hours, 1.7 hours of which were flown on a road reconnaissance mission. VMO-2 UH-1E's were flown for 46.1 hours. Reconnaissance inserts and extractions accounted for 6.6 hours. Small arms and automatic weapons fire were received at coordinates AT 866520, AT 849543 and AT 855555 with negative injuries or damage reported. OV-10A's had a slow day with only 27.2 hours. The lack of activity was attributed to the approach of Typhoon "BESS". HMM-463 logged only 7.1 hours and carried 25 troops and 56.5 tons of external cargo. At 0800H, Detachment "Alfa" of HMM-463 which had been in operation at Quang Tri since late April, was returned to Marble Mountain Air Facility. From now on HMM-462, based at Phu Bai, must take over flight operations in the Northern I Corps area. H-34's from HMM-362 flew only 23.8 hours. The medevac package evacuated 19 emergency, 3 priority and 17 routine med-evacs. Three fire incidents were reported but the aircraft involved were not damaged. HMM-164 logged 32.8 flight hours and carried 244 troops/ passengers and 39.4 tons of cargo. HMM-265 flew only 10 hours due to poor weather and aircraft availability. The squadron flew all 10 hours in support of Operation MAMELUKE THRUST.

5 September - Typhoon "BESS" came ashore just north of Hai Van Pass with heavy rains and high winds. All aircraft remained grounded because of the weather except the medevac aircraft of HMM-362. The medevac aircraft logged 3.1 hours and evacuated 6 emergency and 1 routine medevac.

6 September - VMO-2 logged 42.1 hours, of which 11.9 hours were flown on reconnaissance inserts and extracts. HML-167 UH-1E's were flown for 30.1 hours while 90 passengers were transported. Visual road and area reconnaissance accounted for 6.9 hours of the total time. Twenty-seven point five hours were logged by HMM-362 pilots. Day medevac accounted for 9.9 hours and night medevac accounted for 4.0 hours. Forty-two casualties were evacuated. The CH-46A's of HMM-265 carried 8.4 tons of cargo and 254 passengers/troops in 28.0 hours of flight time. Operations were limited again by poor weather. HMM-164 logged 66.0 hours and lifted 1277 troops/passengers and 37.8 tons of cargo. Small arms and automatic weapons fire were received at coordinates AT 855518, AT 841547 and AT 840510, with negative report of damage or injury. The CH-53A's were flown for 10.3 hours and transported 236 troops/passengers and 46.1 tons of cargo. While on Operation DRAGON PALACE III in support of the ROKMC, a CH-53A carried 13 medevacs. VMO-2's fixed wing pilots logged 29.2 hours in the OV-10A's and directed 10 flights of fixed wing. An OV-10A while on a VR mission located and maintained watch over two stranded marines in the ALLEN BROOK area and helped coordinate the rescue operation.

7 September - HMM-362 flew 23.6 hours, 10.7 hours of which were flown on a night medevac. CH-46's from HMM-265 flew 36.0 hours and transported 343 troops/passengers and 17.6 tons of cargo. HMM-164 crews logged 44.5 flight hours and carried 420 troops/passengers and 30.7 tons of cargo. Two medevac missions were flown evacuating 32 priority casualties. HMM-463 carried 235 troops and 23.7 tons of cargo, in 12.2 flight hours. The only operation supported was Operation DRAGON PALACE III, sixty passengers were carried during 36.1 flight hours logged by HML-167 aircrrews. Four point five hours were flown on road and area visual reconnaissance while 3.9 hours were flown on the APD mission. VMO-2 UH-1E crews flew 35.7 hours and received and returned fire at coordinates BT 032609. OV-10A aircrrews logged 38.4 hours and directed 10 flights of fixed wing against enemy fortifications and assembly areas.

8 September - Twelve hours were logged by HMM-463 crews with 14 troops and 31.2 tons of cargo carried. One UH-34D was administratively lifted from Marble Mountain Air Facility to H&MS-17 at Danang. VMO-2's fixed wing logged 47.7 hours while aircrrews directed 22 fixed wing flights and one artillery mission. HMM-362 flew 29.3 hours with only 14 medevacs. All other H-34 missions were conducted in a routine manner. UH-1E's from VMO-2 were flown for 50.3 hours, 3.3 hours of which were spent on reconnaissance inserts and extracts. Small arms fire was received at coordinates AT 864538, with negative damage. With 4.6 hours flown on visual road and area reconnaissance and 1.8 hours flown on the APD mission, HML-167 accumulated 54.9 flight hours. HMM-265 flew 49 hours and transported 13.7 tons of cargo and 253 troops/passengers. Mortars and small arms fire were received at coordinates AT 861542 and automatic weapons fire was received at coordinates AT 865506. CH-46's from HMM-164 were flown for 38.3 hours and carried 163 troops/passengers and 9.1 tons of cargo. Enemy activity did not effect squadron activities.

9 September - Nineteen airstrikes were controlled by OV-10 aircrrews while they logged 39.0 flight hours. The UH-34D was administratively lifted from the ROK Command Post BT 143619 to MMAF, HMM-265 flew 29 hours, lifted  $\frac{1}{2}$  ton and 240 troops/passengers. HMM-164 logged 46.9 flight hours while they transported 574 troops/passengers and 34.6 tons of cargo. Small arms fire was received at coordinates AT 860510. UH-34's flew 22.7 hours in support of the First Marine Division. Only 10 medevacs were evacuated by the medevac package. HML-167 flew 40.9 hours and transported 126 passengers. Two point eight hours were flown on a road and area reconnaissance and 7.2 hours on the "Firefly" mission. UH-1E's from VM0-2 logged 30.1 hours including 11.7 hours in reconnaissance inserts and extracts, plus one APD mission of 3.3 hours duration.

10 September - CH-53A helicopters flew 16.6 hours and transported 46 troops and 53.5 tons of cargo. HMM-164 aircrues were credited with 29.4 flight hours while they carried 253 troops/passengers and 21.0 tons of cargo. HMM-265 logged 30.0 hours and lifted 4.8 tons of cargo and 399 troops/passengers. UH-34's from HMM-362 flew 34.2 hours and evacuated 32 medevacs. Three fire incidents were reported with negative damage or injury. HML-167 flew area reconnaissance for 3.7 hours and APD for 1.5 hours and with all other missions accumulated 38.4 hours. VM0-2 logged 26.2 hours in the UH-1E and 53.1 hours in the OV-10A. "Hueys" flew 8.2 hours in support of the First Division Recommaissance Battalion. One APD mission was flown for 2.0 hours flight time. The fixed wing aircrues directed 32 flights of fixed wing against a variety of enemy targets throughout the ICTZ. An OV-10A was scrambled to relieve another OV-10A on station after the crew sighted some road building equipment. The second OV-10A controlled 2 flights of fixed wing resulting in one road roller, one road grader, and one bridge destroyed. In the same action a supply area was damaged and two concrete bunkers uncovered

11 September - HML-167 aircraft carried 46 passengers in 45.4 flight hours. Area reconnaissance and APD accounted for 5.6 hours. Enemy fire was received and returned at coordinates AT 858506, AT 9149 and BT 0954. CH-46's from HMM-265 logged 27 hours. During a resupply mission at Thuong Duc Special Forces Camp, mortars were received with negative damage or injury to aircraft or crews reported. UH-1E's from VM0-2 were flown for 23.9 hours primarily in support of the First Marine Division. Reconnaissance team insertions and extractions required 8.5 hours. Enemy fire was received and returned at coordinates BT 019571 and ZC 042508. HMM-362 flew 35.4 hours with three fire incidents reported. The night medevac aircraft received three hits from automatic weapons fire at BT 067630. HMM-164 aircraft flew for 47.0 hours and transported 706 troops/passengers and 20.7 tons of cargo. Enemy fire was received at coordinates AT 861515, AT 9253, AT 855507, AT 865518 and ZC 191799 with no reported damage or injuries. The CH-53A's of HMH-463 logged 17.3 hours while they transported 53.2 tons of cargo and 47 troops. OV-10A's directed 22 fixed wing flights in direct and close air support attacks against the enemy. The OV-10A's logged a total of 53.2 flight hours.

12 September - HMH-463 flew 16.0 hours and lifted 4 troops and 45.1 tons of cargo. Operation LANCASTER II was the only operation supported by the CH-53's. "Hueys" from VM0-2 were flown for 35.9 hours with no significant events reported. HMM-362 flew 52.7 hours and evacuated 38 medevacs with no fire incidents reported. The CH-46's of HMM-164 logged 42.0 flight hours with 575 troops/passengers and 34.8 tons of cargo carried. Crews from HMM-265 flew 39.0 hours and carried 22.5 tons of cargo and 53 troops/passengers. Sixty millimeter mortar fire was received on three occasions at coordinates ZG 147536. Twenty-nine flights of fixed wing were directed by OV-10 crews in 54.1 hours. Numerous bunkers and structures were damaged or destroyed. HML-167 crews flew 35.9 hours and carried 127 passengers. Area reconnaissance required 5.0 hours to complete and no fire incidents were reported.

13 September - HMM-265 flew 24.0 hours in support of the First Marine Division with 117 troops/passengers and 12 tons of cargo lifted. The OV-10's from VMO-2 logged 45.9 hours while they accomplished TAC(A), VR, Artillery, Naval gunfire spotting and Photo reconnaissance missions. Twenty-six flights of fixed wing were directed against enemy positions and equipment. UH-34's from HMM-362 flew 35.2 hours and evacuated 31 medevacs. The night medevac crew was very active and flew 9.0 hours. Heavy lift CH-53 aircraft from HMH-463 flew 13.9 hours and moved 30 troops and 40 tons of cargo in general support of the Third Marine Amphibious Force. VMO-2 gunship crews flew 31.8 hours with 6.1 hours flown on reconnaissance insertions and extractions. HML-167 crews flew 42.0 hours and transported 53 passengers. EMU-164 flight crews moved 455 troop/passengers and 47.6 tons of cargo. The CH-46's flew on 12 medevac missions and evacuated 32 medevacs. Fifty caliber and automatic weapons fire was received at coordinates AT 8649 and AT 9863 with negative damage or injuries reported.

14 September - VMO-2 OV-10's flew 48.1 hours and directed 20 fixed wing airstrikes in direct and close air support missions. Medevac aircraft evacuated 74 medevacs while HMM-362 flew 42.6 hours. HMH-463 flew 23.9 hours and carried 96 troops and 82.5 tons of cargo. One UH-34D was recovered from the vicinity of Liberty Bridge and externalled to MMAF. One CH-53 was mortared out of Thuong Duc and therefore was unable to complete the mission. "Hueys" from HML-167 flew 62.6 hours and transported 123 passengers.
